2nd Annual Loop the Lake 5k Run in Wortham

The 2nd annual the Loop the Lake 5k run/walk (3.1 miles) and Kids 1k (0.6 miles) will be held on Saturday, April 30, 2005. This family event will be held right here in Wortham and net proceeds will benefit our swim team, the Wortham Whitesharks. Please see the race application in this newsletter for more details. A printable version of the race application is available online at www.worthamweb.org (click on events and organizations.) If you'd like to volunteer for this event or if you have questions about the event, please call Blake Walker at 281-970-0564 or email loopthelake@houston.rr.com

We're Gonna Need a Bigger Boat

Once again, the best time of the year is fast approaching. Yep, it's going to be swim season soon! The Wortham Whitesharks will be starting their 11th season this year, and we want you to be part of it. The more swimmers and families we have involved, the better. Wortham has one of the largest swim teams in the Houston area, which is a great testament to the fun and excitement we have every year. We are ready to continue that tradition in style as we try for an historic TENTH winning season in a row.

If you are not already a part of this great team, your chance to join is coming soon. You have the opportunity to join something extraordinary - EVERYONE is encouraged to come enjoy the summer with us, swimmers and families alike. If you think you just can't commit this year, talk with Coach Jon – he can counter any excuse you can think of. Swim Team is the largest community activity in Wortham, and we want you to be a part of it with us. We have swimmers between 3 and 18 years old start new every year - so what are you waiting for, come join the fun!

For those of you who have been on the team before, I hope you are getting as excited as I am. We want everyone to come back – ready to swim fast and have a blast. And don't forget, bring your friends! If you are interested in getting a leg up on the competition, or just can't wait to get started, you may want to sign up for a head start program. Once again we will take on all comers as we remind the world what the Whitesharks are all about. (Good times, of course!)

Registration for the Wortham Whitesharks Swim Team will be at the clubhouse April 3, 2-4 PM; practices will start in April. Watch the message boards for more information. Hope to see you there!

WOW's Spring Get-Together

By Reschele Lawrence

WOW would like to thank Janine Cagney for another awesome get together in February. Friends exchanged news and ideas over great snacks and good wine.

On Tuesday, March 15th, WOW will be held at Lisa White's house (12719 Orchard Hollow Way). We will have a $10 Spring Gift Exchange along with the usual goodies. Hop on over to Lisa's at 7pm for an evening of fun and food. Bring a friend and an appetizer to share.

Until we meet again, remember, it's the simple things that can mean so much.

5K Training Plan

If you want to make the Loop the Lake 5k in Wortham on April 30, your first 5k, you can find many helpful hints at Runner's World online. The following article, entitled "Training for Your First 5k" by Amby Burfoot, is reprinted from runnersworld.com and assumes a base fitness level.

Earlier, we suggested that you might want to consider picking a local 5-K race as a motivational goal. In the last several years, the 5-K has emerged as America's favorite road racing distance. One reason is that the 5-K is easily accessible to people just like yourself, who want to participate in an organized event. Even marathoners like to run 5-Ks as a test of their speed and fitness. If you're not used to metric measurements, 5-K stands for 5 kilometers, or 5,000 meters, or 3.1 miles. Following is an eight-week program for your third phase of conditioning, culminating with a 5-K race.

Week	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat	Sun
1	rest or jog/run	1.5 mile run	rest or jog/run	1.5 mile run	rest	1.5 mile run	60 min walk
2	rest or jog/run	1.75 mile run	rest or jog/run	1.5 mile run	rest	1.75 mile run	60 min walk
3	rest or jog/run	2 mile run	rest or jog/run	1.5 mile run	rest	2 mile run	60 min walk
4	rest or jog/run	2.25 mile run	rest or jog/run	1.5 mile run	rest	2.25 mile run	60 min walk
5	rest or jog/run	2.5 mile run	rest or jog/run	2 mile run	rest	2.5 mile run	60 min walk
6	rest or jog/run	2.75 mile run	rest or jog/run	2 mile run	rest	2.75 mile run	60 min walk
7	rest or jog/run	3 mile run	rest or jog/run	2 mile run	rest	1 mile run	Race

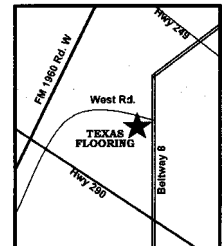

After running a 5-K, many runners race no more—or enter organized races only sporadically, maybe once a year. Others run more often because they enjoy organized competition, even if they have no desire to run fast. Many non-competitive runners like the carnival atmosphere of races and the camaraderie displayed by other middle-of-the-pack runners. Running races and earning more T-shirts becomes part of their social lives. You can race as often or as little as you like. The choice is up to you.

Houston Marathon

The 33rd Houston Marathon took place on January 16, 2005. The 1st Houston Marathon held in 1972 had a meager 113 participants. This year, for the 4th record-breaking year in a row, there were 17,206 registrants! As with years in the past, Wortham was well represented.

The weather was an ideal 42 degrees for the runners (a bit nippy for the families & supporters). The F16's flew over while the national anthem was being sung, and then the race began. It's a sea of people with some forward momentum in the beginning. It took several minutes from the time the starter pistol was fired until the middle of the pack actually crossed the "Start" line.

Houston is a 'kind' course for the runners because it is mostly flat. That combined with beautiful weather, a runner couldn't ask for much more. But there was more. Many cheering & adoring fans, live music, generous volunteers, and George Bush Sr. at mile 19!

We have a large group of runners in Wortham. Getting downtown & parking is a big hassle. No one wants to drive. Jokingly Dana Cirelli suggested, "Why don't we just take a limo!" The more we thought about, the more it made sense. So 10 of us rode to the marathon in style – in a stretch limo!

John and Alma Carnicle were gracious enough and generous enough to host the 'post-marathon' party at their house again this year. It's a great time to share stories and experiences. If you have ever thought of running a marathon or just running for your health, call a Wortham runner. Running a marathon is quite an undertaking. But it's not as hard as you might think! As with every race, it is done one step at a time.

Travel Musings

by Terry Welch, Wortham Villages Resident

Many people regard their vehicles as a mode of transportation, a mere method to get from point A to point Z. My DH is one of those people. He hardly even plays the radio when he drives. He just drives. Puts his hands on the steering wheel and his foot on the accelerator and off he goes. Sometimes, he drinks a coffee drink. Otherwise, he just drives.

Unbelievable.

To the younger members of our family, our van is not just a mode of transportation. Oh, no. It's a rolling entertainment center, snack bar and game show. For entertainment, they play pretend with stuffed animals and Barbies, they do animal imitations, they argue, and they sing songs loudly and off-key.

If they're not singing songs loudly and off-key, we're playing the "What's That?" game or the "Let's See How Quickly We Can Annoy Mommy Game". These two games are usually interchangeable, to wit:

YT, from the back seat: Mommy, what's dat?

Me, driving with my eyes on the road: What, honey?

YT: Dat.

Me: What does it look like?

YT: Dat.

Me, adjusting the rear view mirror so I can see her: What, honey?

YT, pointing out the window: Dat.

Me, looking out the side window: Where is it?

YT: Right dere.

Me: A sign? A tree? A car? The street?

YT: No.

Me, sighing loudly: I don't know, baby.

YT: Why?

Of course, with all this entertainment, they request nourishment. Because life is so much better with a juice box in your hand.

Did I say "request nourishment"? I meant "require". It's like immediately upon me putting the car in gear and backing out of the driveway, they realize they are dehydrated and famished. Never mind that we just ate a simple but healthy meal before we left. They must have a snack immediately, if not sooner. I have a sneaky suspicion they're getting spoiled, though, because now they're getting to the point of being picky. Instead of just saying they want something to eat, now it's specific, like "Mommy, I want seven Bob the Builder fruit snacks and apple juice." I'm just lucky they can't read yet, or I'm sure they'd be requesting brand names – "I want some Frusion drinkable yogurt, Mom, with an Evian chaser."

I know a lady who has trained her kids to not speak in the car. Can you believe that? I don't think even her husband is allowed to talk. I don't know how she did it. My kids wouldn't last a New York minute of vehicular silence, because they have SO MUCH to share with me or ask me RIGHT NOW. Vital things such as what the scab on their knee looks like, or what day it is, or where mucus comes from. Or a toddler joke. If you've never had the experience of hearing a toddler joke, here ya go:

Knock, knock. Who's there? Clown. Clown who? Clown with a silly face.

Ha! Ha! Wasn't that a killer? Because, of course, upon being told a toddler joke, you are expected to laugh uproariously. Believe me, it is just as funny the seventh time around. So, you can understand why I sometimes talk on the phone while I drive. Yes, I know, but I am VERY CAREFUL. That way, I have an excuse for not hearing the kids as they talk and tell those great jokes. They are available for parties, though, if you need some entertainment....
