BLOOD DRIVE FOR ANDREW

*Save the Date
March 17th*

On Saturday, Jan 21st, the Lakeway Community Blood Drive had their best blood drive ever, thanks in part to the friends of Andrew Kline. Andrew is a 8 year old young man from Falconhead West who has recently started undergoing treatment for leukemia and who will need blood for several years. You may have seen the prior articles in the Voice and the View. The Lakeway Drive had over 20 new donors who came to donate for Andrew. The Lakeway Drive actually donated all 90 of the Blood Assurance coupons to the Kline family. These coupons may be used to offset blood related expenses. This in addition to the 35 coupons which were earned at the Blood Drive held in Falconhead West on Jan 15th. The picture above is of Searcy Willis (right) presenting the coupons to Andrew's parents.

The next Lakeway Drive will be held on March 17th. To sign up, please call Searcy Willis at 261-9055 or Swillis1@austin.rr.com.

THE TENTH ANNUAL AMERICAN CANCER SOCIETY

Relay For Life of Lake Travis is now underway.

Please join us as we celebrate survivors, remember those who have lost their battle with cancer and support those who continue to fight back. Help make the American Cancer Society's services and progress possible, and move closer to our ultimate goal: a world with less cancer.

The Relay For Life of Lake Travis will be at the Hill Country Galleria at the Amphitheater, 7 pm to 7 am Friday, April 20, 2012. This will be the third year at the Galleria. Before that The Relay was at the Football Field of the Lake Travis High School. "Our High School students are a very important part of the Lake Travis Relay," says Carolyn Loran, the event chair for 2012, "but we want the rest of the community to be involved as well."

The Relay For Life of Lake Travis in 2011 raised $29,455.81 and had 24 teams. The money raised is use for research - ACS funded 47 research projects that won Noble prizes; and programs for those fighting cancer. These local dollars helped cancer patients here in Central Texas: 3,271 rides for patients to life-saving treatment; 1,638 gas cards; 2,110 personal health managers, 612 free lodging nights to patients, 586 items to breast cancer patients, such as bras and prostheses; 1,005 gift items, such as turbans, hats, etc; 788 wigs, 290 Look Good Feel Better Makeovers; 84 Reach to Recovery visits; 51 children to Camp Discovery in Central Texas alone. Our goals for 2012 are to raise $40,000 and to have 35 teams so this work can continue right here in Central Texas.

"I have always known of the great research projects the American Cancer Society has funded to help lead to a cure of cancer," says Carolyn Loran, "but until I became involved in The Relay For Life of Lake Travis in 2004, I did not realize all the wonderful programs offered to cancer patients free of charge."

Shelly Compton, who works at Compass Bank in Lakeway, has been the accounting chair for the past 2 Relays. This year Shelly is the Team Recruitment Chair. "I am able to speak with survivors and caregivers first hand," says Shelly. "It gives me a better understanding of the struggles that people in my own life have dealt with. When my maternal grandmother was diagnosed with cancer in 1990, her chances of survival were good. She died shortly after that diagnoses. Ten years later when both my grandfathers were diagnosed with cancer, the prognosis for both of them was great. They both lived very full lives with cancer due to the advances made in research and treatment in just that short 10 year span. I Relay because we can and do make a difference, in the world and right here in our community."

The Luminaria Ceremony is chaired by Katie Dash, a high school junior. The luminaria bags are set around the track to celebrate cancer survivors and to remember those who lost their battle with cancer. Last year the bags were weighed down with canned goods collected by the team of Presbyterian Church of Lake Travis. The canned goods are given to Lake Travis Crisis Ministry and Spicewood Helping Hands after the Luminaria Ceremony. This year we are hoping to collect even more canned goods and are asking everyone involved in Relay

Lake Travis to bring at least one canned good.

Alex Evans and Emily Naveira, both high school juniors, chair the logistics committee. Meagan Howell, a high school senior, chairs the high school team recruitment committee.

Probably one of the most asked questions about Relay is why all night? The Relay experience symbolizes the battle one faces with cancer. Just as when one is first diagnosed with cancer, when you first arrive at the Relay, you have many questions. Where do I go? Will someone be there to help? What is this going to be like? Then the Relay starts and the cancer survivors and caregivers lead the first lap. They are leading the way for others to follow. As Relay gets underway, you see friends and family and you are all there to help each other. Then it is 2, 3, or 4 o'clock in the morning, and you are tired and discouraged and do not want to go on. But then you see a friend or a cancer survivor waling the track, encouraging you to go on. You continue your walk. Then comes the dawn. You have made it!

Relay For Life of Lake Travis will be April 20 at 7pm at the Hill Country Galleria. You can register as a cancer survivor or caregiver on our website. Also you can register your team and have your team members sign up on line. For more information, please go to our website at www.relayforlife.org/laketravistx.

Seuss on the Loose AT BEE CAVE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Bee, Laurie, and stick horse

Bee's Buckaroo Birthday party

Dr. Seuss is on the loose once again at Bee Cave Public Library. On Saturday, March 5, the library celebrates the beloved author's 107th birthday with its 7th annual Family Fun Day, "Seuss on the Loose." This year's theme is loosely based on One Fish, Two Fish, Red Fish, Blue Fish, and includes activities with a distinctly "fishy" flavor. The event begins at 2 p.m. with free (temporary) Seuss tattoos, stories, games, and crafts, followed by the Reader's Oath with Mayor Caroline Murphy at 3 p.m. The climax of the afternoon is a rollicking concert by perennial favorite, award-winning children's entertainer Joe McDermott. "Seuss on the Loose was the first program we ever held," said Library Director Barbara Hathaway. "Our inaugural event in 2006 attracted 50 people to the portable building where the library first opened. The event has grown every year, with more than 500 people enjoying last year's event. It's a great day of free family fun for kids from 2 to 92, and we hope to see you there!"

Last month's family storytime celebrating the birthday of the Bee Cave Bee was a big success. The storytime mascot was honored with a Western-themed storytime and birthday party attended by dozens of cowpokes and their parents and grandparents. After sharing stories with Ms. Laurie Works and The Bee, the cowboys and cowgirls made stick horses and galloped on their way. "This was our fourth year to celebrate the Bee's Birthday, and it's become a very popular event. The children who attend storytime are very attached to the Bee, and sometimes bring her birthday cards. It's also a fun way for kids who have aged out of storytime into elementary school to return on a Saturday and see Ms. Laurie and the Bee again," explained Hathaway.

LIBRARY HOURS: Bee Cave Public Library is open Tuesday-Thursday 10 am to 7 pm, Friday 10 am to 5 pm, and Saturday 1 pm to 5 pm. The library is closed on Sunday and Monday. For more information, visit the library website at <http://pl.beecavetexas.com> or call 512-767-6620.

LAKE TRAVIS READS Special Event with Ben Rehder

Popular cultural education program hosts special event with Edgar Award Finalist and Central Texas Mystery Novelist

Popular author Ben Rehder is returning to the Lake Travis area to introduce his new novel, The Chicken Hanger, on Thursday, April 5th at 7 p.m. at Bee Cave Public Library. Rehder was the featured author for the 2011 LAKE TRAVIS READS, the “One Book, One Community” program sponsored by the three libraries of Bee Cave, Lake Travis, and Spicewood.

Previously known as the author of the wickedly funny Blanco County mysteries featuring Texas Game Warden John Marlin, Rehder takes a new direction as he introduces us to Ricky Delgado, who works as a chicken hanger at the poultry plant in Rugoso, Texas, a small border town just thirty miles south of Laredo. His quiet, illegal lifestyle is disrupted when he learns that his brother Tomás has been shot and injured shortly after crossing the border. Together, Ricky and Tomás must make a decision: to risk their illegal status and seek justice, or remain silent and endure the injustices common to all “wetbacks” within the states. Meanwhile, Ricky is fighting a battle within his own body, a disease he acquired in the poultry plant, unbeknownst to everyone but the crooked manager and the company’s doctor.

The Chicken Hanger confronts the present-day controversy of politics and prejudice along the Texas-Mexico border. Rehder weaves between multiple perspectives and opinions of those protecting America and those hoping to become Americans, and asks whether a man’s worth is measured by his citizenship, or by the life he leads. Long-standing arguments about border control in the South and the motives of opposing sides create a suspenseful tale of one illegal immigrant’s fight for justice in the land of the free.

Author Sarah Bird describes The Chicken Hanger as a novel in the tradition of Carl Hiaasen, and praises it as “a fast-paced, fun, satirical romp which aims for truth and hits humor along the way. Kudos to Ben Rehder for crafting a smart, balanced, wickedly funny and highly original look at the contradictions, hypocrisies and hard realities of illegal immigration.”

“One Book, One Community” is a national program created by the Center for the Book in Washington, D.C., and adopted by communities around the nation. Our version, called LAKE TRAVIS READS, is sponsored by the libraries and Friends groups of Bee Cave Public Library, Lake Travis Community Library and Spicewood Community Library. The goal of LAKE TRAVIS READS is to bring the community together to read and discuss shared literary experiences. LAKE TRAVIS READS 2012 featured New York Times and international best-selling author Jeff Abbott who appeared in February to discuss his new thriller series featuring former CIA agent Sam Capra. Anyone interested in serving on the steering committee for the 2013 LAKE TRAVIS READS is asked to contact their local library.

This special evening with Ben Rehder will take place at Bee Cave Public Library on Thursday, April 5th at 7 p.m. The event is free and open to the public. Books will be available for purchase and signing at the event. For more information, contact Bee Cave Public Library at (512) 767-6620.

For more information, please contact Barbara Hathaway at Bee Cave Public Library at (512) 767-6620; Morgan McMillian at Lake Travis Community Library at (512) 263-2885; or Spicewood Community Library at (830) 693-7892.

City of Lakeway Declines Building Permit

After further review of the proposed project, city staff determined that such projects are not allowed uses in the C-1 (Office/Retail) zoning district, the current zoning for the property where the project is proposed.

The site development permit previously issued for the project will be rescinded and the company will be advised to cease construction under that permit.

LIGHT IT UP BLUE IN APRIL

People all over Austin and the World will change lights to blue, dress blue, eat blue, drink blue and even paint fingernails blue beginning on April 2. April is Autism Awareness Month and Autism Speaks is celebrating by turning the World (and Austin) blue for the month. This is the first year Austin will turn blue in a big way. In 2007, the United Nations adopted a resolution to make April 2nd World Autism Awareness Day. Autism Speaks created Light It Up Blue (LIUB) to create awareness for the month. Austin TV and radio talk shows will be airing LIUB segments and contests. Numerous buildings like the 2nd Street Business District, the Four Seasons Hotel, the 360 Condos, the Amli Downtown and on 2nd Street, Home Away, west 6th Street Lounges and many more will be going blue. School campuses will be decorated, plus children and faculty will wear blue. Neighborhood Associations and organizations will turn blue.

Blue events will flood the Greater Austin area like the Blue Bash, Blue Martinis and Manicures, a golf tournament, a Blue Bingo and Burger Bash, a Blue Easter Egg Hunt, a UT sorority sponsored Blue Ball and much more.

Autism is becoming an epidemic with no known cause or cure. If the current trend continues, half the children born in the United States by 2046 will be diagnosed with autism. Our school districts are already “bending” under the load since 70% of people with autism are under 18. When these children become adults, what will happen? Many will have to be cared for throughout adulthood.

Autism robs families of the child they thought they had, since, although some are born with it, many regress around ages 1 to 3. The child loses speech, does not make eye contact, tantrums frequently and seems to be unreachable in his own little world. A diagnosis of Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) is devastating for parents. Every 15 minutes a parent hears this diagnosis! Not only have they “lost” a child, but their entire life is immediately changed. Money and time involved in treating autism is staggering—not to mention the emotional pull of every single day.

Last year over 1,800 iconic landmarks turned blue for April from Niagara Falls, Rockefeller Center, the New York Stock Exchange and the Empire State Building in New York to Christ the Redeemer Statue in Brazil. Buildings all over the world like the Cairo Tower in Egypt, the Hungarian Parliament and the Sydney Opera House in Australia turned blue. This year the number will top 2,000.

Help fight the spread of autism. Create awareness by changing your exterior home bulbs to blue, wearing blue, painting your nails blue, decorating your child’s school in blue, etc. The 2012 Autism Speaks National Poster Child for the United States and Canada is a Greater Austin kindergarten student—a great feat for our area! Let’s show what we can do to make Austin blue!
