SANTA VISITS JESTER!

By Teresa Gouldie, Social Chairman

Santa brought a little of the North Pole weather with him as he arrived in Jester on a fire-truck to greet our neighborhood children on December 14th. Cold temperatures and high winds could not distract all the kiddos, though, from making known to Santa what they hoped to receive under their tree this holiday season. Each child had a chance to visit with Santa personally and pose for pictures with the firetruck in the background. The prize walk was a big hit, along with the holiday tattoos.

We would like to extend a heartfelt "thank you" to the four firemen who took time to come to Jester and create memories for our neighborhood children. The firemen patiently answered questions, posed for pictures, and even helped us move tables for our activities. Thank you Dan Dominguez, Aaron Barta, Toby Heidel and Dan Glover for making this such a great experience for our neighborhood children!

Santa Visit (Continued from Cover Page)

This event could not be possible without our volunteers, so special thanks goes to Eva Wisser, Jenny Davila, Susie Cohen, Sally Blacksmith, Glen Brown, Edward Mokarzel and Bryce Bayles. We would also like to thank Chris and Jose Diaz for asking Firehouse Subs to donate the kiddos' firehats and for picking them up for us. As always, we also appreciate Terri Milan and Jester Club for allowing us to use their facility for our JHA events. And certainly, last but not least, thank you to Santa for making a stop in our neighborhood during this busy season!

Lights Contest (Continued from Cover Page)

Congratulations to 2013's winners:

BEST IN SHOW - 8112 Vailview Cove!

Huge snowflakes hung above curtains of colorful lights. Twinkling stars and a "Merry Christmas" sign hung on the rock wall while the yard was filled with a nativity, snowmen, a gingerbread house and a several mini Christmas trees. The colors and decorations truly provided something for everyone to enjoy! These neighbors seem to know how to decorate for any holiday and it is noticed and appreciated!!! This home won a gift certificate to Siena Restaurant and a body wrap from 360 Tans!

BEST TRADITIONAL - 6600 Winterberry!

The house was the epitome of elegance. Beautifully draped scalloped lights adorned the windows while sparking icicles hung from the roof. The yard was adorned with Christmas trees, red bushes and green lights on the sago palms. Candles graced each window and the entry was decorated with holly and a giant wreath. This home won a facial from Studio Bella!

CHEVY CHASE WOULD BE PROUD - 6807 Jester Blvd!

This home was Griswold Galor! Fantastic (the best in Jester) icicles hung from the roof. Lights, lights, lights everywhere... from the mailbox to the fountain (which gave the effect of running water with it's blinking lights)! The house had it's trees and bushes wrapped as well as two Christmas trees, candy canes and a snowman! The yard outlined in lights and even the back deck was decorated! Rumor has it that the lights blew several fuses! Thanks for making such a fantastic entrance into Jester as one drove up Jester Blvd!!! This home won a gift certificate to Siena Restaurant!

MOST COLORFUL - 6805 Tree Fern Lane!

From the driveway to the basketball goal, this house was decorated in vibrant colors. The roof, house, and bushes were a joyful sight! Lighted ornaments accented the beautifully lit trees perfectly! This home won a gift certificate to The Cheesecake Factory!

WINTER WONDERLAND

- 7600 & 7602 Basil Cove!

Santa sighting! These neighbors come together to create a beautiful site by combining both of their yards. Santa and his reindeer make a dramatic appearance in both yards. Each home compliments the big guy and his team with icicles and beautiful lights! Each home will receive a $25 Gift Certificate... one to My Place and one to Bamboo!

MOST ORIGINAL - 7804 Image Cove!

"God Bless America" was the theme of this home! Red, white and blue lights made for a spectacular sight! Santa stood as a proud patriot. The trees were wrapped beautifully and stars twinkled in them. The home was accented with beautiful wreaths. This home won a gift certificate to The County Line!

BEST TREE - 6723 Beauford!

Who needs to go to San Antonio's Riverwalk when we have this tree in the neighborhood? The tree was just dripping with lights...so gorgeous! Accenting the tree were white bushes. This home won a gift certificate from 360 Pizza!

MAGICAL TREE HOUSE - 7407 Curly Leaf!

With its magical Christmas 2 Story tree entry, hanging icicles, reindeer and rear Christmas tree (that faced 2222), this house stood as a proud beacon for Jester! This home won a gift certificate from 360 Pizza!

BEST CUL DE SAC - Quill Leaf Cove!

Several neighbors worked to make this street stunning. The trees were just AMAZING and the fact that so many neighbors coordinated to decorate the homes, bushes and yards made this one a must for Jester Holiday sightseeing! These neighbors will enjoy Papa Johns pizzas for their efforts!

Honorable Mentions

8313 Elander - This home had the most beautiful nativity in the neighborhood!

8132 Jester Blvd - Hannukah Celebration was in full effect and complimented by festive animals and snowflakes. Even Santa made an appearance at the entry!

7881 Lakewood - Whimsical spiral trees were complimented with a colorful entry and great icicles!

7106 Sansivera Cove - Silent Night Carolers accented the yard. The home was styled in Southern Elegance with wreaths, red bows and 2 stories of beautiful white lights!

8126 Bottlebrush Dr. - You never know when the force is with you! Santa Yoda guarded the yard with his light saber while Snoopy and a giraffe guarded the house. An eclectic delight!

Lights Contest (Continued from Page 5)

Asmara Drive- This street was filled with fun homes. There was a Rudolph sighting, a peace sign and tons of fantastic icicles!

Moonflower - Tons of lights including Santa and his reindeer and a funny "Whack a Penguin" decoration!

Kudos also goes out to all of the homes that decorated. Each and every home made Jester that much prettier!!!

It seems that every year more homes are decorated. Each year, the Jester Lights Contest gets bigger and the prizes multiply (thanks to our generous sponsors). Start planning and get ready for next year, Jester residents!

Thank you to everyone who decorated their homes and yards, sharing the spirit of the holidays!

It has been my honor to serve as the Committee Chair for the Holiday Lights Contest. This position lasts 2 seasons, which is wonderful as everyone has different opinions and it keeps the ideas fresh. If you would like to volunteer for the next 2 seasons, please contact Teresa Gouldie or the Jester HOA.

WELCOME COMMITTEE NEWS

The Welcome Committee has continued its work through the cold weather, with several meetings and deliveries to new families in Jester Estates. We have been very fortunate to have committee members who enjoy meeting together as well as talking to new residents. The Welcome Committee consists of Darla Rowan and JoAnn Welles as co-chairmen, Janice Toreki, Deb Lewis, Eva Wisser, Jennifer Schwan, and Naomi Ritchie. Sometimes we deliver Welcome Bags in a large group – thanks go to those new residents who open their doors to all of us!

Last month we delivered to 4 addresses, and found 3 at home. We knew the 4th had already moved in, thanks to their realtors, and so we left that Welcome Bag on their doorstep on Pampas Cove. The residents we found at home included Kelly and Matt whose new house is on the 8400 block of Asmara. They recently moved from California. Adam and Sarah, with their children Christina and Charles live on the 8000 block of High Hollow. They moved from another neighborhood in Austin, but had just returned from a Disney Cruise when we met them. Johna and Kevin also relocated from within Austin to their house on the 7700 block of Basil. They've been doing some major remodeling.

If you're neighbors of these new residents, please stop in and welcome them.

Please contact JoAnn Welles at (512) 346-0349 or joann-welles@sbcglobal.net if you've moved to Jester lately and we haven't welcomed you officially. We may have tried to deliver a bag to you but not found you home.
