Deed Restriction Letters

As reported in each month’s newsletter, the HOA staff drives at least two sections of the neighborhood per month to note violations of the Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions. These commonly include: front yard landscape maintenance (mowing, edging, free of weeds), home maintenance (paint, screens, siding) and recreational vehicles (boats, RV’s, trailers) parked in the driveway. The HOA is required by state law to notify owners in writing via certified mail and allow for the homeowner to request a hearing before the board of directors. If you receive a letter, please contact us at the HOA office and let us know your individual situation. We would like to work with you to bring your home into compliance. If you would like to report a violation, you can do so via our website at www.circlecranch.info.

Come Celebrate Austin Arbor Day at Kiker Elementary School

The Kiker Elementary Beautification Committee has been working on improving the Kiker grounds for the past several years. This energetic committee has established gardens, paths and landscape improvements on the Kiker Campus, and in addition, they come each weekend to pick up trash and hand water plants! By partnering with the Kiker PTA and Circle C Landscape big areas around Kiker have changed from barren dirt to lovely paths and low water gardens. Various vendors always donate refreshments for the Beautification Events, which are held in the Fall and Spring.

The Fall Beautification Event will involve properly mulching all of the trees at the front of the campus. Tree Folks and the City of Austin will be providing educational materials regarding our trees and this is a good opportunity to come by and help out beautify your community. All Ages Welcome!

HOME & YARD MAINTENANCE TIPS
Submitted by Sarah Humphrey

The Circle C Homeowners Association routinely monitors the neighborhood in hopes of keeping the front yard street view of all homes in compliance with the Covenants, Conditions, and Restrictions of Circle C Ranch. With that being said, the HOA wanted to provide homeowners with some basic tips to keeping our neighborhood looking spectacular! In general, the goal is to have all front yards look neat, uncluttered and sufficiently landscaped.

- Lawn and garden areas should be mowed, free of weeds, alive and attractive
- Shrubs should be trimmed so at least 2/3 of the front windows of the home are visible
- No plastic pots (i.e. original garden containers), no artificial flowers, no empty pots (unless they are utilized as a landscape feature), no pots in the first 10 feet from the curb (right of way), no randomly placed throughout the yard pots
- Limited yard art in the front yard (statuary, fountains, gazing balls, bird houses, etc.) and yard art must be integrated into the landscape. Please move extra yard art to the back yard.
- Trash cans and recycle bins should not be placed in front of the garage; they should be screened from view of other owners
- Maintain exterior of home (siding, eaves, trim, gutters, chimney, etc.)
- Holiday lighting, decorations, etc. should be removed within two weeks after a holiday
- Signs should not be nailed or attached to trees and no signage in the first 10 feet from the curb
- Front Yard Patios need to be approved by the Architectural Control Committee, are limited to two chairs and a small table or other furniture approved by the Architectural Control Committee. No lounge chairs, fire pits or extensive front yard patios are allowed; patios that are installed must have approved landscape screening around them
- Front screens must be in good condition (i.e. not frayed, sagging, with holes, or turned color due to age). Front screens may be removed. The average life of a screen is seven years. If you change the color of the screen, the new color must be approved by the Architectural Control Committee.
- Front yards that are converted to a water wise plan may not be all crushed granite with only a few plantings. All conversions must be approved in writing by the Architectural Control Committee.

1. Acknowledge you are home: When someone knocks at your door, acknowledge you are home. Talk through the door without opening it. If you don’t answer, and it happens to be a criminal they may attempt to break into your home.

2. Do not feel obligated to open the door: You are not obligated to open the door to anyone. If they say there is a car problem, offer to call their road service for them. If it is an accident, call 9-1-1 for them. The idea is to keep them outside and you make the call for them. Ask them to stand by while you place the call. If the person stays, it is a good chance that they are legitimate, however, if they leave quickly, it is probably a con.

3. Insist on identification: Identification should always be verified BEFORE opening the door. Insist they disclose their name, company and the product or service represented. Service representatives should have appointments and not just “show up” at your door. Also, make sure to install a wide angle viewer in your door, so you have a better view – you can buy them at any hardware store.

4. Call if the person is persistent or if something seems off: While some solicitors are legitimate, it is also a tactic used by criminals to case neighborhoods, looking for easy targets. Be aware that criminals will often be carrying backpacks and cell phones. People who are lying often give too many details, touch their face a lot, or keep looking away. Experienced con men will also send younger kids into the neighborhood to do the knocking, knowing that a kid do not draw the suspicion that an adult might.

5. Get a description: Start at the head and then work down to the feet. Do they have a hat? What color shirt? What color pants? Is there other details, like a logo on the shirt? How tall are they (compare them to a family member.) Look for other details; distinguishing features, direction of travel, another person, a vehicle.

6. Help police connect the dots: If anything seems strange or off, CALL!
Why? Because criminals move around and calling in things that seem suspicious can help the police connect the dots. Maybe the police have had reports of another person matching this description in another neighborhood. Maybe somebody a few streets over reported that same car to the Watch. Maybe other neighbors have reported the same fake company going door-to-door to their APD representative.

Call 911 - if its happening now. “I just had a solicitor on my door and he could not show me a company card.” Call 311 - you want the police to be aware of something, but its not an urgent matter “My neighbor just told me there was a young man who knocked his door last night, He was driving a white Ford truck and he seemed too persistent.

City of Austin Ordinance concerning solicitors: § 9-4-22 - Solicitation Between Certain Hours Prohibited. A person commits an offense if the person solicits contributions between 9:00 p.m. and 9:00 a.m. by going to the door of a residence.
Unfortunately some of you have been victim of vandalism and/or theft recently so we wanted to ask everyone to be as proactive as possible to deter crime in Circle C. The City of Austin Police Department has these suggestions for deterring vandalism and theft from your property:

Install a deadbolt lock. Deadbolts are usually locked with a key from the outside and a thumb turn on the inside. The cylinder should be pick resistant. Lock your doors every time you leave the house, even if you’re leaving for just a few minutes during the day. The most popular times for residential burglaries are weekday daylight hours. In over 1/3 of burglaries, there is no forcible entry – someone forgot to lock the doors.

Install solid doors. Outside doors should be metal or solid hardwood and at least 1 ¾ inches thick. Frames must be made of equally strong material and each door must fit its frame securely.

Keep garage doors closed and locked.

Secure sliding doors and windows. Cut a broom handle to the length of the bottom track so that the window or door will not slide open when forced. Also, drill one hole through both casings and sliding window and insert a nail or pin.

Secure sash windows. To prevent wooden sash windows from being pried open, drill a downward sloping hole into the top of the bottom window through and into the bottom of the top window and insert a pin or nail. To prevent aluminum sash windows from being broken into, purchase a track lock that blocks the window track.

Mark your property. Mark your valuables with an engraver. Marking your property serves as a deterrent to would-be burglars and it helps police in identifying and returning stolen property. Make a property identification list. Put warning stickers on doors and windows.

Purchase a burglar alarm. A home alarm system can be a very effective burglary deterrent and fit into many people’s needs. Remember to test your system monthly.

Leave a light on. When leaving on trips, leave a light on in the bathroom. In the bedroom, attach a lamp and radio to a 24-hour electric times set to go on at dusk and off at your bedtime. Close bedroom drapes or blinds.

Use proper exterior lighting. Place a light over every door. Double cones lights on each corner of the house will also light up windows.

Work together with your neighbors. When you are going to be away, tell trusted neighbors and ask them to watch your property. Have neighbors maintain your yard. When on vacation, have someone cut grass. Shrubbery should not hide neighbors’ view of windows or doors. Have someone pick up newspapers and mail. Tell neighbors to call police if they notice anything suspicious.
Austin and its surrounding areas are very aware of the necessity of revising our landscape practices to conserve water in every way possible. We wanted to present an alternative to rain barrels or just letting our precious water run down the sidewalk into the storm sewers.

In our June newsletter article we talked about how creating rain barrel can help to collect and preserve excess rain water for future use. Another good option is to install a Rain Garden. The main goal of a rain garden is to keep water on the land. Rain gardens control rainwater damage and runoff by catching and temporarily holding rainwater until the ground can absorb the water.

“Rain gardens, with their shallow depressions, capture storm-water and provide for natural infiltration into the soil. This provides water for the plants and helps maintain a constant flow of water in our streams through groundwater. They also help filter out pollutants including fertilizers, pesticides, oil, heavy metals and other chemicals that would otherwise reach our creeks through storm drains or drainage ditches. By reducing the quantity of water that runs off your property, rain gardens help lower the risk of flooding and erosion.”

In addition to all of that, rain gardens also provide an attractive addition to your yard! They are not ponds but rather a well-situated depression in your yard filled with native plants that are both attractive and hearty. Many of the plants that work well in a rain garden are also suggested as good options to incorporate into a water-wise landscape plan. The basic principle of a rain garden is to use the natural topography to create a catch basin for rain water, and to install plants that work well in that particular situation. So, if you are tired of those common low spots that fill rapidly with water when it rains, why not explore the feasibility of a rain garden? With a little work over a few weekends, you can create a unique and beautiful garden that uses our natural resources in the best way possible. Thankfully, there are some good guides listed below to get you started.

The City of Austin has created an excellent How-To guide which can be found here: http://www.austintexas.gov/sites/default/files/files/Watershed/growgreen/raingarden_factsheet.pdf

Wow Circle C, what a difference a year makes. There are many more homes on the market this year as opposed to last September-October timeframe. We had a super busy winter and Spring season this year, but it tapered off after July 4th and hasn’t really developed a head of steam again—yet. We have still sold 5-6 homes per month as sales have been steady, but the season of having 10 offers on your listings is over for now, unless the agent is underpricing your home. The "Second Spring" is about to start as a completely different segment of buyers are about to start looking for their dream homes in Circle C with hopes of closing by the holidays. October, November and December are fantastic months to have your home on the market, as Circle C sells year-round anyway. Homes always show fantastic during the holidays as they always smell good with all the fresh baking and are decorated to the hilt. There is an exodus of buyers relocating to Southwest Austin from Northwest and Westlake areas. The word is out that Circle C is only 10 miles to downtown, is very affordable for many families and is a great place to retire. Many people have adult children and grandchildren in Circle C and are moving here to be closer to the kids. With the new home subdivisions being a factor and the interest rates staying low, we will keep the market very active all year in this area. Having lower rates makes it easier for the people moving here to sell their homes too from wherever they are moving from. Call John for an update on the whole area, where the new homes are being built and for how much. As usual, with the holidays the home builders slow down. This also increases the demand for resale homes for those buyers not wanting to wait for a new home. Right now, Avana is backed up and they can’t even start building a home for a new buyer for probably 2-3 months after contract. Halloween is here, Thanksgiving is a speed-bump and Christmas is upon us! If you would like a no-obligation market analysis on your property, please call any time at (512) 970-1970. Thank you, John Squires.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR
By Ramya Prakash

Few people make it seem like living in this world is a little easier. Premal Amin a resident and a new member of the Circle C community is one such person. Hailing from a humble background from Gujarat in India, Premal's life has been nothing more than extraordinary and diverse. Experiences that were challenging, exciting and filled with passion have made the man he is today. Premal is the Head of operations at the Austin Firefighter's Association. He was hired as a go-to finance guy for the union and after leading it successfully, he was presented with the opportunity to run the union, after which he has not looked back. There are over a thousand firefighters in the association in Austin. It is like one big fraternity. He is loved and supported by one and all as a brother, he stands by every one of them.

Moving as an immigrant to the United States back in 1980, came with it's challenges which armed him for a brighter future. Premal did his schooling in New Jersey and moved on to Atlanta for college where his entrepreneurial spirit was unleashed and he was a founding member of the Indian Association at the University. Owing to his affiliations he was put on the Indian Olympics Committee during the Atlanta Olympics (1996). His sharp business skills and smart mind helped him absorb all the experiences and be resilient to change. His family owned a wide range of businesses like a gas station, a butcher's shop, a Hallmark store etc. He owned a franchise of the Paciugo gelato shop in Austin, and ran a motel. This provided him an opportunity to hone his skills and learn from successes and failures. In 2000 he came to work for Dell, then moved on to a non-profit to be the Director of Operations of the Miracle Foundation, and later he joined the Austin Firefighters Association.

Premal has never been afraid to talk to anyone or make friends. He is an extrovert in his heart who loves laughter and gatherings. Family is important to him and he believes his neighbors to be part of an extended family. One could walk up anytime to his house with any concern and be sure for it to be resolved or receive guidance in the right direction. He is not the kind to stand by the lines and watch, but rather jump in any game. After having moved to Circle C a year back, he decided to dive right in, to be a part of this microcosm. His belief in Circle C as a neighborhood is unshakable. He loves the community and wants to give back to the place he calls home. He was not shy to stand up for the Home Owners Association election being a neophyte. Premal strives hard to achieve what he aspires. The legacy he wants to leave with, is teaching his child and everyone around him that giving back is an integral part of one's life.

Paying it forward provides fulfillment like no other. He strongly believes that travelling has provided him with a fresh perspective on life. Few places he has been to include Morocco, Central America, Europe, Indonesia and Mexico. He empathizes with the hardships of less fortunate and is grateful for what he has. He is a firm believer that there is no substitute for hard work.

“It is important for the community to stand up and have a voice”, he says. Hence he wants to play a key role in helping Circle C secure a neighborhood park and a high school. He is willing to work with others to take the necessary steps in the right direction to maintain this amazing community and achieve its goals. He feels the neighborhood is at its best with services well cared for, maintained streets and wonderful people who make living here a dream come true for many many residents.

Premal’s life outside of work takes you to a whirlwind of activities. He is a member of CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate), helping people who cannot help themselves, he was involved with the Big Brother Big Sister, Austin. He is a part of the ‘Dad’s on Duty’ in Kiker elementary and also has signed up to coach baseball for ‘Fire Sharks of Kiker’ (age 5-8). Premal can make anyone laugh. “All he needs is an open mic, he could do stand up comedy” say some of his friends. He loves to cook in his free time and loves to watch any kind of sport. Do not hesitate to knock on his door, or stop by for a chat with this dynamic person you’ll ever meet.

Is It Alzheimer’s Or Something Else?

Submitted by: Elizabeth Ball, Certified Senior Advisor, Daily Money Manager – resident of Circle C

Although Alzheimer’s disease accounts for 50% of dementia cases, there are many types of dementia which can affect us with increasing age including vascular disease, alcoholism and Parkinson’s disease. Some doctors are now diagnosing patients with “Mixed Dementia” indicating that there is more than one diagnosis present.

Dementia is termed as a loss of cognitive function, including loss of memory, thinking and reasoning. It can also involve changes in behavior and mood.

Alzheimer’s disease is one type of dementia that is at the forefront of our thoughts when we observe a loved one exhibiting certain types of behavior. AD has a specific characteristic in that is it caused by abnormal proteins being deposited in brain tissue which form amyloid plaques. These cause the neurons to lose their ability to communicate with each other and cause them to die. The disease will also cause the brain to shrink in volume. AD is unfortunately irreversible and progressive.

Although there is no cure at present for Alzheimer’s there are some medications that are showing promise for arresting its progression. It is critical to see a specialist for testing to sort out a correct diagnosis and prescribe treatment.

It is important to note that there can be other reasons for dementia type symptoms such as a reaction to medications, or an interaction of various medications. Seniors are particularly susceptible to urinary tract infections which can produce alarming dementia type symptoms.

For all of us diet, exercise and a healthy lifestyle are important but it has been shown to particularly important to arrest the onset and progression of dementia. A simple ten minutes of walking a day can increase circulation which helps brain health. Keeping mentally and socially engaged has also been shown to help with brain health and function – so keep those brains active with being involved with stimulating new tasks and activities.
