DROWNING IS PREVENTABLE

RETIRE BETTER BACK TO THE BASICS

WITH JOSH STIVERS

With so much going on in the economic world, I want to take a break and revisit some vital principles for successful investing. Potentially rising interest rates, expensive U.S. stocks, Greece's debt situation, and an upcoming election season are tempting many investors to sell risky assets and flee to safety.

If you can relate, then consider this: Most of what matters in investing involves bedrock principles....not current events. Consider how you can revisit the principles below in your own portfolio.

Diversification is how you limit the risk of losses in an uncertain world.

Diversification can be frustrating because it requires owning some unpopular assets at times, but we all know the future will play in ways we can't imagine. Owning a little bit of many things is a bet on humility.

You are your own worst enemy.

The biggest risk facing most investors is not the next market correction or interest rate movement...it is their own emotions and biases.

There aren't many iron rules of investing, but one of them is that no amount of brain power can compensate for behavioral errors. Figure out what mistakes you are prone to make and implement strategies to limit this risk.

There is a price to pay.

Historically, the stock market has offered incredible long-term returns. With that said, the cost of those returns is a never ending flood of unpredictable outcomes, volatility and unexpected downturns. If you can stick with your investment through these times, the cost is only mental...though very real. Not everyone is willing to pay this cost leaving opportunity for those who are.

It is tempting to try to figure out what the market will do in the short term, but the reason the long term returns are so good is due to the fact that we can't predict what stocks will do tomorrow.

When in doubt, choose the investment with the lowest fee.

As a group, investors' profits always will equal the overall market's returns minus all fees and expenses. Below-average fees, therefore, offer one of your best shots at earning above-average results.

A talented fund manager can be worth a higher fee, mind you. But enduring outperformance is one of the most elusive investing skills. There are no promises in investing. The best you can do is put the odds in your favor. And the evidence is overwhelming: The lower the costs, the more the odds tip in your favor.

Time is the most powerful force in investing.

If you do the math on 84 year old Warren Buffet's fortune you will find that $70 billion of his $73 billion was accumulated after his 60th birthday. Mr. Buffett is, of course, a phenomenal investor whose talents few will replicate. But the real key to his wealth is that he has been a phenomenal investor for two-thirds of a century.

Wealth grows exponentially—a little at first, then slightly more, and then in a hurry for those who stick around the longest. That lesson—that time, patience and endurance pay off—is something us mortals can learn from, particularly younger workers just starting to save for retirement.

If you would like further information on this topic or to receive a copy of our report on retirement investment planning, please send your requests to the email below. As always, we are here to answer your pressing questions and concerns regarding retirement investment planning.

Hill Country Indoor Sports & Rec

After 4 years of zoning and infrastructure work, the long awaited Hill Country Indoor Project has begun construction on their 130,000 square foot indoor sports facility in Bee Cave, TX. Located on 8.5 acres just off of Bee Cave Parkway (next to the Back Yard Development and directly across from Ladera), the sports facility will be one of the largest indoor training facilities in the state. Geared towards sport specific and group training, the developers hope to fill a void in the overall lack of court and field space in the Lake Travis area. They also plan on hosting youth and adult leagues as well as tournaments. A full service membership gym will also be offered with not only a panoramic overlook of the Hill Country, but a bird's eye view from the 300 yard elevated jogging track that surrounds the interior.

Other amenities include regulation sized high school basketball and volleyball courts and a full sized indoor soccer field which is convertible to lacrosse and flag football. There will also be programming for "out of the box sports" such as dodge ball, kick ball, and pickle ball. A climbing wall is currently under development along with concessions, sports medicine specialists, massage therapy, and party rooms for special events.

Planned opening for the facility is Fall of 2016. For more information, please follow HCI on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/HillCountryIndoor>, or check the facility website for the most up to date news www.hillcountryindoor.com.

FIGHTING FOR A CURE... YEAR ROUND

The Relay For Life of Lake Travis, which had been gearing up all year for the cancer fundraiser and walking relay, culminated on April 17th at Lake Travis High School, with record breaking attendance and fundraising. Despite the rain, which forced the event to be held inside the Turf Room, it was standing room only for an event that last year raised a mere $15,000 approximately. This year's event had 443 registered participants and raised over $95,000 thanks to the generosity of this outstanding community! It was the largest Relay in Lake Travis history.

Relay For Life, which is the signature fundraising activity of the American Cancer Society, is much more than just one main event. The Lake Travis Relay For Life committee is determined to make fundraising a year round effort, and for it to be recognized as a staple event in the community for years to come. With the support and recognition that has already been garnered through this past event, it is sure to be an even greater success this coming season.

After a year of firsts, including a 'Turkey Trot, 'Kick Cancer's Booty' Fundraiser at Solid Rock Brewing and a Survivor Dinner at Star Hill Ranch, the committee hopes to capitalize on the successes of last year by having similar events this year and adding another first to the mix. Realizing that different people like to participate and donate in a variety of ways, the Relay For Life of Lake Travis hopes that there is something for everyone that urges them to give, while having a great time doing it.

This year the committee is pleased to announce their newest fundraising effort, Golfing 'Fore' Cures. This modified scramble golf tournament will be held on Friday, September 18th, 2015 at Avery Ranch Golf Club (8am shotgun start). For $150, you can enjoy a day of golf at one of the top ranked courses in Austin, including a cart, warm up balls, lunch, goody bag, prizes and even an Avery Ranch Replay card. It is sure to be an amazing day of golf, and more importantly of raising money for the American Cancer Society. All profits from the event go to the American Cancer Society, which funds research as well as many programs that help people to stay well and get well (www.cancer.org).

To register for the event, go to www.averyranchgolf.com, click 'Buy Online' tab and 'Tournament Sign Up'. There is also an opportunity for businesses to donate towards Hole Sponsorships, which would allow them to set up a table and pass out information regarding their business at their hole. For more information on that, please contact Event Chairperson Cathleen McBurney (cc.mcburney@gmail.com).

SEASON SIXTEEN IN SPICEWOOD

Spicewood Arts Society, The Home of the Arts in the Hill Country, is geared up for its 16th year of bringing live music to the residents in the Spicewood area by presenting a fresh, exciting line up of some of the best musicians around. Season tickets are $180 for all 6 concerts which will be held at the beautiful Spicewood Vineyards Event Center, 1419 County Road 409 in Spicewood, Texas 78669, are available now.

Diversity is what this new season is all about as The Warren Hood Band starts things off in September with its bluegrass, country blend while the tribute to jazz great Tony Campise ends the series next May. The performances for the rest of the year will be just as exciting with the sounds of "rock 'n roll meets TexMex" "Tejas Brothers, "Texas' Original Recession Era String Band" Guy Forsyth and the Hot Nut Riveters, Malford Milligan who has been compared to Sam Cook, Otis Redding, and Al Green as well as the Artisan String Quartet who debuted at the Carnegie Recital Hall in March.

Before the concert begins come and enjoy visiting with your friends and neighbors on the veranda of the beautiful Spicewood Vineyards Events Center as you listen to the calming effect of the flowing brook away from the sounds of busy life. Taste the delectable wines from the vineyard which are available for purchase before the show and during intermission.

For tickets and information on other upcoming events go to the website www.spicewoodarts.org or stop by The Home of the Arts Gallery/Office at 9408-B Hwy. 71 West in Spicewood, open Tuesday through Thursday 11:00AM-4:00PM.

TENNIS TIPS

By USPTA/PTR Master Professional - Owner, Manager and Director of Tennis
Grey Rock Tennis Club, Austin, TX

“Tennis for Children 11 years and older – Yellow Ball”

This series of Tennis Tips is focused on how to involve children of all ages learning to play tennis and offering tips to the parents on how to assist at home. In the last issue I offered advice for children 9-10 years old and under playing with the softer green ball on a 78' foot court. This issue, will focus on children 11 years and older playing with the yellow ball on a 78' foot regular size court.

The children should be using rackets ranging in length from 25” to 27” long. The size of the racket will depend on how tall and strong the players are. The grip size should now range from 4” to 4 ½”, again depending on the size of their hands.

Caption 1: Tennis Court: For those players ready to cover the regular size court, they will now be playing on a 78” x 36’ tennis court. Lines are now painted regular white making it much easier to see the ball landing, especially while the opponents are serving. Players need to be physically ready to cover the entire court.

Caption 2: Groups: The key to children learning how to play the game of tennis, is to assemble them in group lessons. Most clubs offer them according to age level and ability. The tennis professional will separate them so each player is comfortable in their respective group. A good ratio is 6 players to 1 pro, and the range going from beginner to advance.

Tennis camps are also an excellent way to give them a concentrated learning experience. The students usually spend two hours working on fundamental strokes and also playing games. At the end of the week, these players should be able to start playing on their own and/or with the help of their parents. Of course, if additional help is needed, they may consider taking tennis lessons from a certified tennis professional.

Children at this age are already playing points and are given tips on how to hit groundstrokes, volleys and serves with control. The USTA provides tournaments and leagues for children 12, 14, 16 and 18 and under using the yellow ball. Matches are normally 8 game pro-sets and they are encouraged to play round robins and/or consolation rounds.

Below the title, there is a paragraph of text describing the program as well-rounded and multi-focused, emphasizing early childhood development. The bottom section includes the text "Join our school!" followed by contact information for Northwest Austin: 6507 Jester Blvd, Building 2, Austin, Texas, 78750, (512) 795-8300. The logo for "The Children's Center Of Austin" is in the bottom right corner, and the website www.childrenscenterofaustin.com is at the bottom.
