Gardening Tips for October

October is here and the end of high temperatures is in sight. There are several jobs in both your lawn and your garden that can be done this month. If you haven't put down a lawn fungicide yet, now is the time to do that to prevent Brown Patch from appearing. Cooler nights, warm days and lots of humidity, creates the perfect conditions for fungal growth. If you already have spots appearing, apply your fungicide at curative rate. The container will list a square foot coverage on the front. This is the preventative rate and curative rate is half of that square foot coverage. So if you have a 5,000 sq ft lawn, at curative rate it will only cover 2,500 sq ft.

Now thru early November is the time to apply your last fertilization for the year. I recommend a fertilizer with a low rate of Nitrogen for your fall feeding. If you apply early in October, you can use Nitro-Phos 19-4-10, Late in the month use the winterizer 8-12-16.

Here in the Gulf Coast we are lucky to have 12 months of color in our gardens. It is time to start to take out our summer annuals and replace them with both fall and winter color. For fall we have a wide range of plants to choose from. Marigolds will hit their peak in the fall and cover themselves with blossoms. Mums will start to bloom as soon as the day length gets short enough. Dianthus and Snapdragons will bloom in the fall and again in the spring. Petunias are a good choice for masses of color and will survive a light freeze.

For winter color we have a shorter list of plants. Pansies are the favorite winter plant, giving a wide range of color during the winter. Violas (sometimes called Johnny Jump Ups) are smaller flowers, but with more flowers per plant than pansies. Ornamental Cabbage & Kale take up a larger amount of space and color up after the temperature turns cooler. Kale and Cabbage needs to be planted early so that it has a chance to grow before the cold temperature slows down the growth.
