PROJECT PROM 2016 – CY-FAIR HIGH SCHOOL

Please mark your calendars...Cy-Fair Project Prom will be selling Black Velvet Hardwood Mulch. Order by February 19th and your mulch will be delivered to your driveway free of charge on March 5th!! More info will be in next month's newsletter. You can also visit our website: www.cyfairprojectprom.com

We also need parent & student volunteers!! To volunteer or more info, please contact Meya Edwards meya1@comcast.net or Tina Critendon at tcritendon@sbcglobal.net.

Community access to Addicks Reservoir and points south is getting closer! The overall project, sponsored by Harris County Precinct 4 Parks and MUDs 341 and 370, will connect the crosswalks at Ginger Ponds and Tanner to the top of Addicks Dam.

The project schedule hinges on a permit from the Corps of Engineers. The County has begun working on the environmental and archeological studies necessary to obtain the permit. It is possible construction could begin in 2016 if no obstacles emerge and the Corps' permit process runs smoothly.

If you have any questions about the project, please contact your LOE neighbor Mark Durka at mdurka@aol.com.

8TH Annual Salute to Our Heroes Gala

On February 13, 2016, the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation (CFEF) will hold its 8th Annual Salute to Our Heroes Gala at the Omni Hotel. Joe Myers Ford Lincoln is generously underwriting this gala that honors the brave men and women who have served to protect our freedom and liberty.

Gerald Coffee is the guest speaker. Coffee served our country as a naval officer for 28 years; much of that service was as one of the longest held prisoners of war in the communist prisons of North Vietnam. His military decorations include the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross, two Bronze Stars, the Air Medal, two Purple Hearts, and the Vietnam Service Medal with 13 stars.

Salute to Our Heroes has raised more than half a million dollars over the past seven years. Proceeds from this event have funded three endowed scholarships.

CFEF was established in 1970 as a non-profit to raise money to fund a scholarship for high school graduates in the area. Over the past 45 years, the Foundation has grown tremendously through the efforts of the Board of Trustees and the generosity of the Cy-Fair Community. The Foundation has awarded more than $6 million in scholarships to 1300 graduating seniors. CFEF is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization, all contributions are tax deductible, as allowed by the law.

Sponsorships and tickets are available for Salute to Our Heroes
Tickets: $100 individual; $50 veterans

For more information please contact marie@thecfef.org or visit our website at www.TheCFEF.org.

Shalom Cypress

Shalom Cypress was established in 2011 by local families seeking a Jewish presence in Northwest Houston. We are the closest synagogue within 25 miles of the nearest synagogue. Many thought that they were the only Jews in the Cypress area, but it turns out that they were wrong! Shalom Cypress has grown to more than 30 affiliated families.

Shalom Cypress Hebrew School is now open for enrollment for the Spring 2016 year. This upcoming year Morah Rina is going to concentrate on conversational Hebrew with the children. Bar/Bat Mitzvah programs are also available.

A special Mazel Tov to Jordan Loeb on her Bat Mitzvah! She did a wonderful job reading from the Torah. Our community is very proud of her.

For this upcoming month, please see our below upcoming event schedule for this month:

December 11th & December 12th

Services will be held Friday evening and Saturday morning. Rabbi Rami will lead the services. Each service is followed by dinner & lunch respectively.

December 12th - Hanukkah Celebration

Traditional songs, dreidels, lots of latkes, and more fun. Don't forget to bring your own Menorah and candles so we can all light them together!

December 3rd, 10th, and 17th

Our weekly coffee night is held each Thursday night. Rabbi Wolbe and Rabbi Goldstein take turns in leading our discussions.

Shalom Cypress has many ongoing & active programs for people of all ages. # The Do's and Don'ts for getting that Perfect Christmas Photo of Your Pet Photographing animals can be really difficult. They get distracted easily, they're almost always moving, and they even make silly faces. This can make it difficult to get a photo worthy of a Christmas card, but it is possible! Here are some Do's and Don'ts to help you out.

DO keep plenty of treats handy

Our animals often need a bit of extra reward and loving to sit there and look cute for us, so make sure to have plenty of their favorite treats available.

DO have toys and noise makers to grab their attention

They don't always listen to us, so bring their favorite toy to hold up next to you and they're sure to look over with an inquisitive face.

DO look at your background first and move around until you have eliminated distracting items

You don't want to turn your horse into a carousel ride by having a pole in the background looking as though it is going straight through their belly.

DO have an assistant or two to help out

It can be really tiring and frustrating if you are the only person out there and you are repeatedly putting your camera down and running over to your animal to pose him or fix a prop, and then running back and only hoping he is still where you left him.

DO use a fast shutter speed

If you are shooting in Manual mode on your camera be sure to use a fast shutter speed (at least 1/250), so that even if the animal is moving when you click the shutter you will still get a clear picture. If you do not have a Manual mode on your camera, try using the Sports mode.

DO be aware of colors

Choose complimentary colors for the props and costumes you use. The same goes for taking a picture of the pet with his owner- don't wear a shirt that is the same color as your dog- you want contrast.

DO focus on the eyes

Especially when taking close up shots. Their eyes can be very expressive so you want them to be sharp and clear.

DON'T forget that candid shots can be cute, too!

Don't automatically throw out all the photos where your pet is not looking or making a silly face. Those shots can be just as good as posed ones, because they show the personality of your pet.

DON'T just throw props and costume pieces on your pet before letting them "OK" it. Let your horse smell whatever prop you're going to use first or rub it on them gently until they are relaxed. They are much more likely to cooperate if they aren't scared of the Santa hat on their head.

DON'T crop off just the feet or hooves

Be careful when you are framing your picture, you don't want to crop out just their feet or tail or ears. Step back for a whole body shot or crop it in close to a headshot.

DON'T shoot during the middle of the day

The best lighting of the day is about an hour before the sun sets. It is much more diffused and soft, and you will avoid all the harsh shadows.

DON'T try to be in a hurry

Taking animal portraits takes patience! You should expect it to take more than just a few shots.

DON'T use a flash

Sudden bursts of light from a flash may frighten your pet and cause red eye.

Lakes on Eldridge North

For as long as I can remember I have wanted to ride. As a child I read every horse-related book I came across, and begged and pleaded with my parents for a horse of my own. The facts that I had never ridden a horse before and that we lived in a two-bedroom apartment in Brooklyn, New York were never considered deterrents to my dream. When I got older, and we moved to Texas, I enjoyed a few horseback rides on the Galveston beach, but I always felt as if something was missing. This was not the dream I had. The horses were amiable enough, but it always felt as if they were just doing a job; robotic, if you will. The horses I rode along the beach were just performing a job, and the “something” missing I had felt was the bond, the relationship, a rider feels with his/her horse in natural horsemanship.

For my 30th birthday, I gave myself a gift and signed up for Natural Horsemanship lessons at Five Horses, LLC. From that point on, my life as I knew it was changed. No longer was I just a chauffeur, a maid, a chef, or wrangler of two-legged tornadoes (i.e. children). A whole new world was opened up to me, and I found myself forever changed. I learned incredible things about the horses I interacted with. They have an amazing capacity to challenge you, to demonstrate love and affection, to forgive, and to inspire with their spirit. I found that every trait they possess, I wanted to emulate. Then, they went a step further and showed me how I could acquire all of these wonderful traits in myself. Since I started, I've become more patient and forgiving, braver and more confident, and more adventurous. Every day I become closer to the person I feel God intended me to be, and I feel blessed.

Once I opened up and took a chance by starting this journey, I found a community, a hobby I'm passionate about, some of the closest, most loyal friends I could ask for, and my "heart horse" who is now my best friend and closest confidante, a horse very appropriately named Try.

I found joy.

Tara Chatterson is a student at Five Horses, LLC.

The Houston Choral Society Presents Matinee Christmas Concert

Sunday, December 6, 2015, 3:00 PM
at The Foundry United Methodist Church

The Houston Choral Society (HCS) presents an afternoon of festive entertainment with its special Christmas matinee concert, Believe, on Sunday, December 6, 2015, at The Foundry United Methodist Church, beginning at 3:00 PM. This family-oriented concert of joyful music is under the direction of Artistic Director Dr. Betty Devine. “This is a diverse program that gives us the opportunity to do works from a wide repertoire of music that has been written for the Christmas season,” said Dr. Devine.

In addition to classical pieces like “O Holy Night” and “Hallelujah!” chorus from The Messiah, the afternoon concert includes the opportunity to sing along with beloved Christmas Carols such as “O Come all Ye Faithful,” “Joy to the World,” and “Jingle Bells.” HCS is also continuing an audience participation tradition for our Christmas Concerts with the ever-popular “The Twelve Days of Christmas.” HCS strives to be a catalyst for the enrichment of vocal music in other organizations, and is pleased to be joined for a portion of the concert by talented choral students from Rosehill Christian School, under the direction of Beth Briner, Rosehill Christian School Choir Director.

Patrons of all ages will enjoy the presentation by the student choir as well as the combined choral presentation of two songs from popular Christmas movies – “Welcome Christmas” from How the Grinch Stole Christmas and “Believe” from The Polar Express.

In addition to the concert, attendees will be treated to holiday decorations, enticing desserts, and the opportunity to meet and get pictures taken with Santa and Mrs. Claus.

Ticket prices are $25 for adults, $20 for seniors/students/veterans, and $10 for children ages 5 and younger. Group rates are available. Tickets are available online at www.houstonchoral.org. Tickets may also be purchased at the door. The Foundry United Methodist Church is one of the premiere choral venues in Houston with extraordinary acoustics. It is located in northwest Houston at 8350 Jones Road, Houston, TX 77065 with easy access from Highway 290.
