Ladies Club

Welcomes All LOEN Ladies to the May 2016 Meeting

Attention all ladies of LOEN, please join us at the upcoming meeting on Tuesday, May 26. We will be welcoming in our new officers which were approved at our last meeting in March. We begin each club meeting with a Potluck Social Hour between 6:30pm and 7:30pm and follow with a general meeting starting at 7:30pm. Drop in anytime during the Potluck Social Hour to share great dishes prepared by our members, meeting friends, and greeting newcomers. The dishes are usually small entrees, side dishes, or desserts to be shared. Ice water is provided.

LOEN Ladies Club has many different groups with something to offer everyone. Our groups include Angels, Book Club, Bridge, Bunco, Chickless Hens (daytime Brunch), Dinner Club, Explorers, Girls Night Out, and Garden Club. Recently, we've started a Men's Club for the men in LOEN. Ladies Club is the perfect way to meet your neighbors, make new friends, and get involved. New members are always welcome and we'd love for you to come in to meet us and find out we were all about. Email us at loenladiesclub@hotmail.com or join us on May 26.

Newest Professional Network of the American Business Women's Association Launches in Houston's Vintage Park Area

Businesswomen throughout the community are invited to attend.

The Women Empowering Women Express Network (WEWEN) of the American Business Women's Association (ABWA) invites professional women to attend its "Official Launch Luncheon" on May 4, 2016 at the Lone Star College-University Park West Dining Room, from 11:00AM to 1:00PM. Informal networking will take place from 11:00AM to 11:30AM, followed by a special presentation and lunch from 11:30AM to 1:00PM.

Susan Hodge, founder of Women Leading Together LLC and Adjunct Professor at the University of Houston Downtown College Of Business will present "Shedding the Shoulds". "We are excited to bring an empowering, energetic, and professional organization to women in Houston. WEWEN will serve as the premiere source for women looking to expand their network, grow their business skills, reach a new audience, advance their career, and truly impact this community," states WEWEN Formation Chair, Darlene Hajduk.

The Official Launch Luncheon is sponsored by University of Houston Downtown College of Business, Lone Star College-University Park, and the Cy-Fair Express Network. To register for this event and other WEWEN events, visit wewen.org or email communications@wewen.org.

6 Health Benefits of Eating Dark Chocolate

If your sweet tooth craves chocolate, there are plenty of reasons to surrender to your cravings and indulge. Dark chocolate is loaded with nutrients that can positively affect your health. Made from the seed of the cocoa tree, it is one of the best sources of antioxidants on the planet. Cacao offers a number of health benefits from helping to control blood sugar to lowering the risk of cardiovascular disease because it contains flavonols, which are a type of antioxidant that has been shown to improve blood flow and can protect against sun-induced damage, improve blood flow to the skin and increase skin density and hydration.

Bottom Line: Quality dark chocolate has various nutritional perks so enjoying a delicious treat that has at least 65% cacao can be guilt-free if you don't overdo it.

NUTRITIONAL PERKS

HEART-HEALTHY

Dark chocolate has been shown to improve blood flow and possibly prevent blood clots. It also helps lower blood pressure and may help prevent arteries from hardening.

BRAIN FOOD

Because chocolate increases blood flow to the brain, it can be a boost to your cognitive health.

MOOD CHANGER

Chocolate also contains phenylethylamine (PEA), which encourages your brain to release endorphins that make you feel good.

CANCER FIGHTER

Antioxidants in chocolate help rid your system of free radicals, which have been linked to multiple age-related health risks and diseases.

SOMETHING TO SMILE ABOUT

Theobromine, found in dark chocolate, helps harden tooth enamel, which helps prevent cavities.

SUN BLOCKER

Some studies show that people with diets high in flavonols take longer to burn in the sun than people with low flavonol diets.

TENNIS TIPS

By USPTA/PTR Master Professional - Owner, Manager and Director of Tennis, Grey Rock Tennis Club, Austin, TX

How to execute The Overhead “Smash”

In previous newsletters, I offered tips on how to hit a forehand groundstroke, a two-handed backhand, one-handed backhand, forehand volley, the two handed backhand volley, the serve, the forehand half-volley and the one-handed backhand volley. In this issue, I will offer you instructions on how to execute the overhead “smash” when players get a high ball and hit the ball above their head. In the illustrations, Matilda O’Connor, player at the Grey Rock Tennis Club, shows the proper technique to execute this stroke. Photos by Charlie Palafox.

Step 1: The Back Step: When Matilda realizes that a ball is high enough to hit the overhead, she takes a step back on the side to hit the ball. The upper body turns, the racket starts the backwards motion by keeping the elbow at a 90-degree angle and the left hand is pointing towards the ball. Notice that her head is looking at the ball and she is keeping her chin up.

Step 2: The Point of Contact: As Matilda prepares to hit the ball, her racket begins accelerating from the back position. She is making perfect contact on the upper part of the racket and the right wrist is “snapping” to get on top of the ball. Her left arm is still pointing to the ball to assure a direct hit on the “sweet spot” of the racket. Her weight has shifted from the back foot to the front foot.

Step 3: The Follow Through: After the ball has been struck by the racket, Matilda will continue the swing across the left side of her body. Her eyes are now focused on the path of her stroke. The left arm is at her left side. Her right foot still keeps her toes on the court to allow for maximum balance of the stroke.

Step 4: The Ready Position: Even though the overhead “smash” is a powerful weapon, many times the opponents will return it back to the players. Here Matilda is ready for the next ball coming back towards her. By the looks of her smile, it appears that her overhead stroke was a success and that won the point.
