NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Get Involved
Your Neighborhood
depends on it!!

Normandy Forest had a very successful National Night Out on October 4th. Sherri Cabrera is the ball of energy and was the driving force for this event. Thank you Sherri for all your hard work. Many thanks to our HOA Board, John Nemec, Paul Diaz, Judy Doll, Sally Rodriguez and Lindsey McPherson for their help. Also thanks to Rich Doll for representing MUD #28 and helping with check-in.

There were over 35 volunteers for the event including Klein-Collins Honor Students and Boy Scouts. Teens had fun climbing the rock wall, playing bungee ball and sticking to the Velcro wall. There was also a cake/cookie walk and several bouncy houses for younger neighbors. Just before the event ended, raffle tickets were pulled for a wide variety of prizes. Neighbors praised everyone involved and said they had a great time at the event.

John Nemec, HOA President

John and Lisa have been residents of NF for the past 17 years. They have two children a son, Michael and daughter Madeline. John has been serving on the HOA for over ten years. He hopes to win his seat again in the November election and continue making improvements to our subdivision. "I really like the hominess and diversity of our community" said John.

Meet Our New Constable

Normandy Forest has a new Constable keeping our neighborhood safe. His name is Ketrick McCutcheon. He has been in law enforcement for two years.

Constable McCutcheon graduated from Booker T. Washington H.S. and Southwest Baptist University where he was on a football scholarship. Give him a friendly wave when you see him!

CHACHA & DESTINY

ChaCha is 10yrs old and in 5th grade. Destiny is 7yrs old and in 2nd grade. Both girls attend KREINHOP Elementary. They recently raised over $100, thanks to the generosity of neighbors, when they decided to do a lemonade stand and sell goodies to help collect food for the Klein Collins Food Pantry. We, at home, have been teaching the girls the value of money and to give back to the community, says their mom, Marie. The school food pantry was low and the girls decided to help. They also collected food at our National Night Out event.
