"Your Speed is XX"

Harris County deployed its mobile radar unit along Steepleway Blvd between 9/7 and 9/9. This was done at the request of the Association's BOD.

During this time period (46 hours), 2,119 vehicles were clocked. 69.5% were speeding (31mph or higher); 20.3% were traveling at 36mph or higher.

SCIA has requested the deployment of this unit at additional locations within Steeplechase as the unit becomes available. This is an effort to inform drivers as to their speed and to help maintain traffic at posted speeds.

The complete report is available on the SCIA website.

Support Emmott Elementary – Our neighborhood school

For the past 20 years, Box Tops for Education has been supporting local schools. The program is simple, and everyone can help. Simply clip the Box Tops from products you already buy (Cheerios, Ziplocs, Kleenex, etc.), place them in a bag, and drop them off at the Emmott Elementary front office. After the school's volunteer Box Top coordinator submits the Box Tops, a check is sent to the school twice a year, so the school can purchase needed items. Every Box Top gives the school 10 cents which means one hundred Box Tops becomes $10 and a thousand Box Tops becomes $100. The numbers add up quickly when everyone works together. Bonus Box Top certificates can be found on participating products and receipts. Please visit BTFE.com for a comprehensive list of participating products, bonus Box Top opportunities, and additional information. Thank you for your support! Let's support our children and teachers!
