PLUM CREEK POST

THANK YOU FROM THE REC COMMITTEE

The Rec Committee would like to thank volunteers who signed up via our online portal and served at various events throughout 2016! Also, thank you to those who came out to the Holiday Bazaar with Blue Santa in December. Blue Santa was very grateful for our neighborhood helping him buy gifts and wrap gifts for children in our area. We had a blast together!

Thank you to these volunteers and committee members. We know not all volunteers are listed here as some offered help during events or came with others signed up. If we've missed you below, please know that you are VERY much appreciated. We counted at least 50 different ways volunteers contacted us to offer help. We are sure we've missed some of you!

Community Center Reservations:

Plum Creek Community events, that require the usage of the clubhouse, will take precedence over any individual reservations. The recreation committee may need to use the community center the week prior to the event for set up. These community events are Front Porch Days (May), Fourth of July, Hootenanny on the Hill (October), National Night Out (October) and Holiday Bazaar (December). If you make a reservation on these dates in advance be aware that your reservation may be cancelled. The dates are published each year in the PC Post newsletter and the eNews in the first quarter of the year.

Event Fanfare:

Plum Creek HOA hosts many social events each year and you, your family and neighbors are always welcome! The events mostly take place in the parks, though some happen in other spots throughout the neighborhood. Social events promote teamwork and community involvement, and we encourage participation and volunteerism. If you live near a park, or on a running course trail, enjoy fanfare and community spirit during these events! As a courtesy to all, event dates are posted on the Plum Creek HOA website: www.plumcreektxhoa.com.
