Lake Travis High School PTO April Speaker

On April 18, nationally recognized speaker Elaine Pasqua will be working with the Lake Travis High School community. She will present an assembly to the Freshmen and Sophomore classes on healthy relationships and another to the Juniors and Seniors on preparing for college life.

That evening at 6:30 in the Black Box Theatre at the High School Performing Art Center, Elaine will present a program to the parents where she will discuss the latest high-risk trends that teens and college students are experiencing nationwide. Parents will take away numerous preventive strategies to help guide their teens towards positive choices for success in school and life beyond. Instead of having that "one talk," parents will learn how to keep that important conversation ongoing. This program is a must for parents who want to sleep at night knowing that they have empowered their children with the skills to make responsible choices. As one parent commented, "I walked out more informed, more shocked, and more empowered to try and guide our kids safely through life." She will have her book to purchase during this session.

For the past 20 years Elaine has spoken at over 600 different college campuses across the nation. Her areas of expertise encompass high-risk drinking, sexual assault, sexual health, drug abuse, and social media. She has worked with numerous notable Division I football programs and for 28 professional sports teams from the NFL, the NBA, and Major League Baseball. Elaine is the author of #Mom I Got This: Building Your Legacy in College and Beyond and is a columnist for Campus Activities Magazine's "Real Life on Campus." She has been featured in USA Today, NY1 TV, Time Warner TV, Knight Ridder News Service and South Dakota Public Radio.

XCELERATION National Signing Day Celebration of Athletes

National Signing Day, February 1, 2017, was a significant day for a local Lake Travis business. Xceleration Sports Performance Labs is what some consider a Lake Travis area physical training secret weapon. Xceleration boasts the unique ability to give any athlete explosive speed, to precisely apply that speed to the specific sport, and even to tailor their training to the individual position. That might appear to be a lofty claim, but for the 2016-17 school year, their athletes have received 65 D1 offers by February 2017 alone.

The Signing Day Party at Xceleration was a celebration of what they consider “their athletes”. Families and friends proudly displayed their new college colors and mascots. Music, laughter, and shouts were testament to the energy in the room. Austin Burrito Company and McArthur’s of Lakeway provided food for this party. Excitement, anticipation, and relief were visible on the faces of these new college-commits. University flags lined the ceiling, pennants created a colorful stripe down the tables, and Xceleration athletes took their seats, flanked by the Xceleration Trainers.

Matt Neel, the owner of Xcelerations Sports Performance Labs, tells us, “Our number of signed athletes is guaranteed to climb as many of our athletes are currently deciding on offers, and due to the fact that many sports haven’t finished their respective seasons”. Sports like soccer, basketball, baseball, and track and field, all announce in the following months.

Matt Neel has been a sports performance trainer for 20 years and brought his talents of speed training and sports performance to Lake Travis athletes almost 10 years ago. The collection of Xceleration trainers are some of the most technical trainers you can find, with multiple advanced degrees, specialties, certifications, and a vast array of real world experiences that translate to unparalleled success on the turf, court, diamond, track, pitch, mat, and course. Training at Xceleration for athletes ranging from 12 years to professional athletes is provided by Daniel Back, Judd Lienhard, Rickey Jackson, Micah Greer, Scott Frost, and Matt Neel (pictured standing left to right, not pictured Aaron Davis).

MARCH MARKS NATIONAL NUTRITION MONTH

Five Key Nutrition Tips for a Healthy Lifestyle

March is National Nutrition Month, and it marks the perfect time to assess the foods you eat and commit to a healthy lifestyle. It's never too late to make healthy eating a part of your everyday life and Dyrell DiLorenzo, Hospitality Site Manager at Baylor Scott & White Medical Center – Lakeway, is ready to help get you started with these five key tips:

- Highlight fruits, vegetables, and whole grains - This category should be 45-60 percent of your daily calorie intake.
- Fiber, fiber, fiber - Fiber is important for our bodies during the digestion process, as it slows down how we process these foods.
- Embrace lean proteins - This includes poultry, fish, beans, egg whites, nuts, and other lean meats. 15-25 percent of our diet should come from proteins, according to the USDA.

- Don't fear fats - Although fats sound like something we should stay away from, it is essential to get between 20-30 percent of your daily calories from fats. Good fats include, olive oil, nuts, seeds, avocado and fatty fish.
- Moderation is key - Just because you are eating healthy doesn't mean you can't indulge on occasion. Just be wary of your sugar and calorie intake, read the ingredients, and decide "is this really worth it?"

Healthy eating is not about strict dietary limitations, staying unrealistically thin, or depriving yourself of the foods you love. Rather, it's about feeling great, having more energy, improving your health and stabilizing your mood.

The Lakeway Players present Moon Over Buffalo* by Ken Ludwig

Moon Over Buffalo is the story of an acting couple (David Cummings and Lauren Linn as George and Charlotte Hay) who are on tour in Buffalo, New York, in 1953 with a repertory consisting of Cyrano de Bergerac and Noël Coward's Private Lives. Directed by Linda Dobbs (Ghost of a Chance), this backstage farce by the author of Lend Me a Tenor (Ken Ludwig) brought Carol Burnett back to Broadway and also starred Philip Bosco as her megalomaniac, often drunk husband and leading man. Fate has given these thespians one more shot at starring roles in The Scarlet Pimpernel epic and director Frank Capra himself is en route to Buffalo to catch their matinee performance.

Moon Over Buffalo is one of those plays that shows the scenes behind the onstage scenes. There are really three plays intertwined with each other. And, being a farce, you have all the craziness that includes doors opening and closing, people hiding in closets, half-dressed actors, near misses in running into people who are hiding, mistaken identities and mass confusion. Timing is everything...and as the show goes on the timing gets better and better. The Player's spring show also stars returning favorites Alle Bird (Rosalind Hay), Annette Brown (Ethel), and Clarence Goins (as Richard). Lakeway new comers Hope Carew (Eileen), and Mike Magor (Paul) also grace our stage, while we're especially pleased to have Rhett O'Hara (as Howard) join us fresh off the same production and role in Round Rock at the Sam Bass Theater!

Tickets go on sale Tuesday 2/21, and show dates are Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, March 23rd, 24th and 25th. Call the Lakeway Activity Center at 512-261-1010 for tickets, and as usual, seating will be at tables of 10 to allow you to bring lots of friends, food and adult beverages to complete your special evening out. Tickets are $20.00 each, which includes soft drinks and snacks. The doors open at 6:30, with the show starting at 7:30. See you at the show for a rollicking good time!
