SWING INTO THE NEW YEAR AT LAKEWAY'S BIG BAND BASH

Dance the night away to swing music at Lakeway's Big Band Bash from 8-10 p.m. Jan. 8, 2018 at the Lakeway Activity Center ballroom, 105 Cross Creek.

Enjoy the large dance floor with tables available for your snacks and beverages at a place where you may invite your friends without the hassle of reservations.

The Lakeway Big Band Bash is on the second Monday of each month. Admission is free, but donations to the band are encouraged.

Kent Dugan's 17-piece orchestra, The Republic of Texas Band, features Lakeway singers David Cummings and Lisa Clark. This band consistently appeals to everyone. Expect to hear a wide variety of favorite tunes, mostly from the Sinatra era, with fresh arrangements.

"There is no better way to start the new year than by having dinner at one of Lakeway's many restaurants, and then coming to the Bash at 8 p.m.," suggests Fred Newton, Lakeway Arts Committee chairman. For information, call the Lakeway Activity Center at 512-261-1010.

FEATURED FAMILY ON THE COVER – THE BARCELLANOS

Q: How long have you lived in Lakeway/Lake Travis area?

A: Jacin and I both grew up in Lakeway. We both went to Lake Travis high school.

Q: What do you like most about Lakeway?

A: I would say the thing I like most about living in Lakeway is the feeling of community. I grew up out here. For me, it has all the charm of a small town. I run into lifelong friends at the grocery store or out to eat. Our kids play on the same playscapes and go to the same parks that we did. When they go to school I am leaving them in the hands of people, some of which I've known for 20 years. My roots run deep here, and that's something I could never have anywhere else.

Q: How/where did you meet?

A: Jacin and I met through mutual friends who live in the area.

Q: What are some of your hobbies?

A: We love to be at the lake. During the summer, we usually go swim a few times a week. When it's cold we fish and kayak.

Q: Where do you work/what do you do for a living?

A: I am a medic with the Army Guard. I work at Camp Mabry in Austin. Jacin works for high-tech floors as a field supervisor.

Q: What is your favorite thing to do as a family?

A: Outside of time at the lake

Q: What is one of your favorite family memories?

Jacin said that his favorite memory was when we all went down to the beach. We stayed in Rockport and had a blast.

Q: Do you have any pets/what kind?

A: We have a lab mix named Pearl. She loves the lake as much as we do. When we go to the park in the summer, the kids swimming there love to watch her jump head long off the cliffs into the water or dive for rocks in the shallows. We also have a cat named Church. She is not so fond of water.

Q: What is something you would like to share with your neighbors and community members?

A: Turn your brights off when you pass runners on the street ;)

Q: What is something you would like to do or are looking forward to doing in the next year?

We talked about it and I think we are going to try and take another family vacation to the coast. Personally, I would really like to run a marathon this year. I have been training and as long as there is no more setbacks (injuries) I expect it will happen!

Q: What is your favorite piece of advice or quote?

"Truth without love is brutality, and love without truth is hypocrisy." -Warren W. Wiersbe

Q: If you could travel anywhere with your family, where would it be and why?

If we could all go anywhere it would be somewhere tropical.

GIVE GIFT OF LIFE BY DONATING AT LAKEWAY COMMUNITY BLOOD DRIVE

RESOLVE TO HELP SAVE LIVES BY DONATING BLOOD IN 2018

The next Lakeway Community Blood Drive will be from 8 a.m.-noon Jan. 20, 2018, at the Lakeway Activity Center, 105 Cross Creek.

We Are Blood schedules drives in Lakeway every eight or nine weeks throughout the year so donation at one drive allows donors to give again at the next drive.

Additional blood drive dates in 2018 are: March 17, May 12, July 21, Sept. 15 and Nov. 17.

“Mark your calendars!” urged new Lakeway Blood Drive Coordinator Todd Buikema. “Every donation counts in the effort to maintain a local blood supply.”

We Are Blood collects the blood for use in the Central Texas area except in unusual circumstances, as when some was sent to the Gulf Coast after Hurricane Harvey and to Florida after Hurricane Irma.

To schedule an appointment for the Jan. 20 drive, visit WeAreBlood.org or contact the drive coordinators at LakewayCommunityBloodDrive@gmail.com. Walk-ins are welcome, but donors with appointments are given priority.

Some health conditions, medications and travel locations may temporarily or permanently prevent people from donating blood. Eligible donors are in good health, at least 17 years old and weigh at least 115 pounds for whole blood donations or 110 pounds for platelet donations.

If you have questions about eligibility call 512-206-1108. Please send other questions to the email address above or call 512-206-1204.

CAFA Update

This is an update to our last article in the December issue of "Lakeway Voice".

Citizen Advocates for Animals (CAFA) has hired a wildlife biologist and his team to spend several nights driving the streets of Lakeway to get as accurate a count of the deer as possible. As of now, the numbers are much lower than expected. The City has, for a good while, used the number 500 for the carrying capacity of deer in Lakeway. Once the final results are in, we will share them with you.

In December, an official letter was read and given to each City Council member and Mayor Bain, Steve Jones, City Manager and Charles Edwards, Lakeway Deer Committee chairman. CAFA is requesting that the City take a year off from deer trapping while a deer information committee does expansive research into other methods being used for humane deer management. This would involve a team of volunteers to look into other U.S. communities across this country and their deer population control measures.

CAFA volunteers will continue to help Lakeway become a city known for its compassion and respect for wildlife. With progressive options available, the City could very well be known as the first Texas city to end cruelty to the deer.

LAKEWAY CONCERTGOERS ORDER BROWN BAG LUNCHEON SERIES

Lakeway's Brown Bag Luncheon Concert Series returns for its 17th season to give musical minds something to chew on for 2018.

The City of Lakeway's Arts Committee is continuing to produce the series of free weekly concerts every Thursday in January and February at the Lakeway Activity Center, 105 Cross Creek.

Each concert is from noon-1 p.m. and is open to everyone. Reservations and tickets are not required.

"Mark your calendars, pack your lunch, and prepare to be entertained," Lakeway Arts Committee Chairman Fred Newton said.

The 2018 Brown Bag lineup is:

January 4

Mady Kaye Quartet

Popular cabaret vocalist Mady Kaye will perform along with some of Austin's best musicians.

January 11

Albert and Gage

The iconic duo of Albert and Gage has impressed Lakeway and Austin audiences for years. Respect for Christine Albert's musicianship is shown by having been the chair of the National Recording Academy's Board for the Grammy Awards. She and her husband, Chris Gage, have performed their roots rock-folk music together and with other bands in performances nationally.

January 18

Barbara Calderaro & The Highlights

Barbara Calderaro will bring her quartet, The Highlights, to the Brown Bag stage to show why she is so popular in Lakeway. They will feature jazzy versions of your favorite songs.

January 25

Frank Cavitt & Friends

Venues like Donn's Depot in Austin regularly get a rockin' performance from Frank Cavitt on piano and vocals. He and the quartet captivate audiences with their honky tonk style.

February 1

Lake Travis Fiddlers

The Lake Travis Fiddlers, founded in 2000 by Lake Travis ISD Orchestra Director Anna Macias, are continuing to gain national recognition. They perform in a wide variety of Texas venues and were a great hit in Lakeway last year. These fiddlers and singers present a rousing show of country and folk music. If there was a "state championship" for high school musical groups, they would run away with it.

February 8

The Second Line Jazz Band

Get ready for Mardi Gras as The Second Line Jazz Band returns to Lakeway. They have performed in concerts sponsored by the Austin Traditional Jazz Society and at various festivals. Band leader Jim Ivy says, "The band's name comes from the quintessential New Orleans art form, said to be like having a jazz funeral without a body."

February 15

Robert "Beto" Skiles Quartet

The Robert Skiles Quartet will present a musical valentine. Vocalist Shawnda Birch will be featured as they present popular songs with a taste of blues. Skiles is renowned as an orchestra leader, composer and college teacher. He performs in many venues, including annual shows at the One World Theatre and, last August, at Lakeway's Cool Arts Party.

February 22

Red Young Quartet

Pianist Red Young has had a spectacular musical career, including recordings with Dolly Parton, Tanya Tucker, Linda Ronstadt, Eric Burdon and Nelson Riddle as well as concert tours around the world. The Red Young Quartet will feature Young's wife, vocalist Silvie Rider, in this concert.

BOOKINGS BRISK FOR 2018 LAKEWAY CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY

Lakeway police are reporting high enrollment for their popular Citizens Police Academy.

The 2018 program will be a 30-hour block of instruction designed to give the public a working knowledge of law enforcement and the department's policies and operational practices.

Classes will begin Feb. 21, and graduation will be May 9.

The academy will meet Wednesdays from 6 to 9 p.m. for 12 weeks at the Lakeway City Hall auditorium, 1102 Lohmans Crossing, to cover a different area of police work each week. Police officers, their supervisors and civilian personnel with particular expertise in a specific organizational function will conduct each instructional block.

The primary objective of the Lakeway Citizens Police Academy is to build a better understanding between citizens and the police department through education.

The program was created to help citizens make informed decisions about police services, police activity and why the police can or cannot take action.

Lakeway Police Chief Todd Radford said that he hopes that the academy will increase public awareness, dispel suspicions and misconceptions about police actions. The police department benefits by becoming more aware of the community from the participants' interaction and input, which makes the academy a two-way learning experience.

"The Citizens Police Academy is an integral component of Lakeway Police Department's community policing programs," Radford said. "The growth in enrollment each year and the positive interaction between our officers and students reinforce the city's and the department's commitment to the academy each year."

Participants must submit an application and consent to a background check. All applicants must be at least 21 years old and either reside or work within the city of Lakeway. Applicants who are on probation, or who have been convicted of felonies or crimes involving moral turpitude are ineligible.

Class size is limited to 50 people, all of whom must have passed the applicant background check. The academy is free of charge. Students must attend at least 80 percent of the classes in order to graduate.

Graduates are eligible to apply for membership to the Lakeway Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association.

"Many academy graduates continue to serve the community in the Alumni Association and Lakeway Police Foundation," Radford said. "We are grateful for their assistance, especially at events such as Lakeway's Fourth of July parade."

Applications are available at Lakeway Police Department, 104 Cross Creek, or on the city's website at www.lakeway-tx.gov/police.

Complete and return applications to the Lakeway Police Department by Feb. 2 to be considered for the 2018 academy. For information, contact Crime Analyst Laura Rodriguez at 512-314-7587 or laurarodriguez@lakeway-tx.gov.
