Editor's Comments

Well, friends, 2018 is more than half over. Now it is time to celebrate our nation's birth. We hope that you and your loved ones enjoy our traditional parade through the streets of Fairfield and come out to enjoy the fun and festivities planned by the Women's Club from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm at Central Park (located at the cross streets of Heath Green Circle and Medley Green Dr. [down the road from Salyards Middle School]). There will be food vendors, inflatables (water & dry), dunk tank, live entertainment, a selfie station, community booths, and more.

This month we've spotlighted Webb's Automotive, the Bosons, and our local celebrity Dan Sear, a long distance biker. We hope you have an uplifting, enjoyable read, and most of all, we are glad, once more, that you are part of our helpful, family-oriented community.

Make sure to take a peek at Jill Fondren's extraordinary story about Swenke's third-place world champions where our students showcased their creative talent at Destination Imagination's Global Finals 2018. And, grab your box of tissues before you read Melanie Vitovsky's "We'll See You Later" article about the joy and sadness of saying goodbye to this year's batch of foreign exchange students.

Once again, thanks for supporting the Gazette and remembering to call or email me when you come upon an inspirational gesture or discover someone that has gone above and beyond the call of duty to help or assist others. Last, but not least, remember to voice your opinions about things you see or what you read. We enjoy hearing from our readers, and we value your opinions. You can reach me at jackiedevine@peelinc.com.

Have a happy and safe holiday. I hope to see you at our Fourth of July festivities.

Celebrating their 25th Anniversary – 7 years in Cypress

by Jackie Devine

When you need your car serviced, what is your first consideration—dedication, experience, honesty, certification, price or guaranteed service? What if I told you, that you could find all of the above at the 2016 Small Business Award Winner Webb's Automotive of Cypress? I'll wager that is precisely why they are celebrating their 25th year in business this month.

They specialize in routine maintenance, where they work on all makes and models offering oil changes, brakes, and tune-ups. They also provide extensive repair including, difficult electrical problems. Many consider them the community's "guardian-angels" of car repair.

As veteran entrepreneurs—children of families who owned their businesses (Roy's a furniture company, and Tracie's in automotive repair), they grew up meeting the expectations of fiscal responsibility and customer satisfaction. They both agree that there is no way to measure the depth of knowledge they gained from working with their parents. In some ways, they view it as a legacy that they can now pass down to their own children.

After high school, Roy pursued a college degree in Aviation at San Jacinto College, and Tracie focused on business administration at the University of Houston.

During and after graduation, Tracie served as office manager for her parent's business. Roy also joined the team. He quickly discovered that mastering the intricacies of complicated machines and dealing with hundreds of separate parts that were performing countless functions was not only fascinating; it was also his calling.

The bigger the problem, the deeper he delved and the more challenged he became. Tackling tough repair problems went hand in hand with serving and satisfying customers. Roy had hit his stride!

After they married, Roy began refurbishing and repairing trucks, and in no time he was ready to hang out his shingle. While Tracie remained working with her parents, Roy opened a truck lot. Before long, he invested in a lift enabling him to work on cars and trucks more efficiently.

Word spread about his expert services. Surrounding companies began bringing their corporate vehicles and truck fleets in for repair. Employees of those companies followed suit. Space became a problem.

Buoyed by the confidence Roy garnered from his growing number of customers, he opted to rent a larger space. In 1995 he relocated a short distance away, and that was the official start of Webb's Automotive.

By 2010, expansion was again in the offing. The Webbs purchased property on Mueschke Rd. and began preparations to build. Then, the unthinkable happened, Tracie found she had breast cancer. Undaunted, they pressed on knowing God was in control, and all would be well.

They opened their doors in 2011. Today, the first person that greets you as you walk in the door is their nephew Service Manager Cody, who is also in charge of the technicians, customers, parts, and workflow. The son of Tracie's sister, Cody married his college sweetheart Lindsay, who is a nurse at Texas Children's. Service Manager Cody, an integral part of the company, started working at Webb's Automotive when they opened.

Amazingly, in addition to Cody, the rest of the ASE Certified technicians that greeted our community on day one are still with them. No doubt that is a real testimonial that the Webbs not only treat their customers fair, but they also treat their employees like family.

As Tracie says, "The community is our family. Our customers are our friends, neighbors, church members, and parents of our son's football team. Now we are working with the second generation of customers; we are servicing the kids of the families we've been working with for years."

She added, "We thrive on relationships. We want our customers to be customers for life. That can only happen when everyone feels served."

Quality oriented Roy explains, "When the cars Webb's works on are on the road, my name is on the line. I aim to make sure that every car is safe to drive. That is why I test drive every car possible that goes out of my shop.”

Everyone in the organization has been trained to take time to focus and to listen to the needs of the customer. Moreover, when needed, they have systems in place to work with customers who are struggling. Some have said, “Through their work and their acts, they are genuinely ministering to the community.”

In closing, I asked Tracie the same question I ask everyone I interview: “What have you learned living on this revolving rock we call earth. What can you say that you know for sure?”

“What I know for sure,” Tracie smiles, “is God is in control. We’ve learned that there is going to be trouble in life. Life isn’t always going to be perfect. However, Roy likes to say, “It’s all going to work out. We will be OK. It always is, because God’s in control.”

“We have our health, we have our family, and anything else is just icing. We are simple people. We enjoy our home and our kids and our family.

“We love going to the beach, fishing, and hunting. God has created everything. He brought us together, brought us our kids, blessed our business. It hasn’t always been easy; at times it was hard.

We live by the notion, “You do the right thing, you work hard, and God does the rest. God does bless the fruits of your labor. That is what I know.”

What do I know as a customer? “Webb’s Automotive stands behind their word. They do what they say they’re going to do! Moreover, they don’t upsell. The service you need is the service you buy.”

Tracie and Roy have two children. Haley is a Cy Ranch graduate, now attending Sam Houston State University. Wyatt is a Cy Ranch junior. Both work for their parents part-time in the summer.

If you happen to be on Mueschke, stop in and wish them “Happy Anniversary,” they will be delighted to see you.

Fairfield is Our Home

by Sarah Boson

In 1983, a young Army Captain, his wife, and two-year-old and three-month old daughters moved to Mount Pleasant, Michigan. The husband had an assignment to teach ROTC at Central Michigan University. When they arrived, a lady who was not only their realtor, but also their lifeline during the early stages of their stay befriended them. Realizing this family had limited funds and only one income, the realtor put the Bosons up in an unfurnished house until they were able to find a home to purchase. This random act of kindness planted a seed for what the Bosons would eventually do in the future.... pursue a career in real estate.

Michael “Bo” Boson and Sarah Lee Boson have been in wedded bliss for nearly 42 years. They met while attending Sam Houston State University and married after they both graduated with degrees in Business Administration. Michael received a commission as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army and Sarah earned an additional education certification.

The Bosons left their assignment in Germany and moved to Fairfield in June 1994. At that time, Michael served as the Professor of Military Science at Prairie View A&M University and Sarah taught sixth grade at Arnold Junior High.

Remembering the service we got in Michigan, we again had a great real estate agent who helped us with our relocation. She recommended several areas for us to visit. Our search took two weeks to find a home that would be in a great area, have great schools, and be a short distance to Prairie View A & M.

When we moved here, there were not many stores, retail, etc. in the area. In fact we had to drive to Hwy 6 and 1960 to buy groceries and shop. We were happy to be in what we thought was somewhat in the “rural area”.

We have fond memories of our neighborhood with neighbors who were friendly and looked out for one another. As a matter of fact, the street we bought our home on, consisted of seven houses. Construction surrounded us.

During these early days, our “neighborhood family” held several cookouts. We also played volley ball, cards, basketball and badminton on the empty lots during the weekends.

Over the years, we have watched the area grow and have just about everything one could ever want or need without having to drive out of the area.

We always thought that we would stay three years and move on to the next duty station. However, LTC Boson decided to retire from the Army after 20 years of active duty service. It was at this point that I decided to take the plunge into real estate.

My first agency was Remax Town and Country in 1998. There, I became a “million dollar” seller.

Maintaining the education bug in my system, I was employed as an instructor by Champions School of Real Estate where I have remained to this day.

In 2012, I earned my Broker’s license and started my own company, SARAH LEE PROPERTIES, LLC. Bo recently earned his real estate license and joined me in pursuit of more happiness after his 20-year career in pharmaceutical sales.

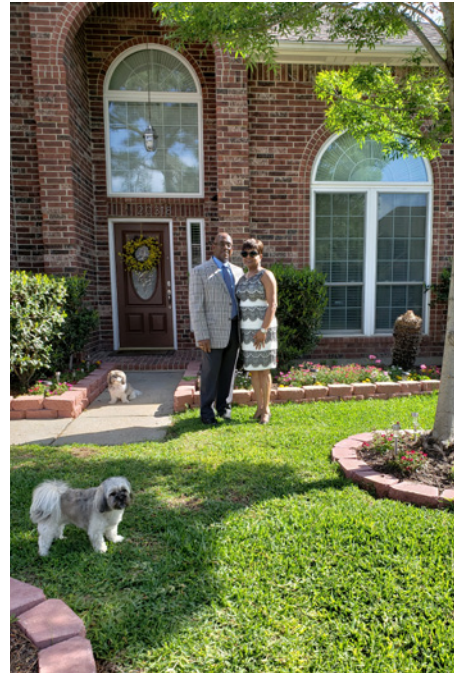

As we reflect on our time here in Cypress, we have fond thoughts of how it once was and how it is now. We love the community and all that it has to offer. We still live in the same house and on the same street and are basically institutions in the neighborhood.

Many people continue to move to Fairfield for all the reasons we came here 24 years ago. There are many subdivisions that have been built all around us, but none like Fairfield. Fairfield is home.

Our children grew up here, going to the same schools and church. Both graduated from Cy Fair High School. Nicole, our older daughter, works in the Woodlands in Human Resources. Crystal, the younger daughter, has a PhD and works for Cerner in Kansas, City, MO, Bo and I enjoy walking, spending time with our Shi Tzu dogs, (Reeses and Nicholas) and taking interesting classes. We are also members of the Cypress Fairbanks Chamber of Commerce and active in our church (First Metropolitan Church) as greeters.

We have many friends and neighbors who moved off our street, but did not leave Fairfield. They just relocated inside of Fairfield. That kind of tells a story of how fond people are of the Fairfield community.

Dan Sear, One Of Our Community Treasures

by Jackie Devine

Do you recognize this guy? Well, if you've ever stopped in at Snowflake Donuts or Nyam Nyam Cafe early in the morning, no doubt you've had the chance to meet, Dan Sear (a.k.a Mr. Dan) and hear his story.

Dan was a long distance bicyclist who didn't take up the hobby until he was 55 years old. He explained, "When I graduated at 19, I was just like everybody else, naive, but thought I knew everything. I was a member of the Army National Guard and had big plans. Out of the blue, I started having black-outs."

After a battery of tests at the University of Iowa Hospital and Clinics system, he found he had epilepsy. With a little investigation, Dan discovered that his epilepsy had been genetically transmitted to him through his paternal grandmother. He soon learned he was no longer a candidate for the National Guard and was promptly handed an honorable discharge.

That's when, he told his girlfriend, Joyce, that he wasn't sure how the whole thing was going to turn out. Maybe she should reconsider his proposal. She opted to stay with him for the long haul.

They married and were blessed with three children.

During the '50s, the colleges in Iowa were not prepared to accommodate people with special needs. Nor were the manufacturing plants scattered throughout the area. Finding work was challenging, but with the help of his wife, he was able to find two companies that gave him a chance and prove what he could do.

In the late '70s, due to a black-out, he hit a parked car going 50 miles an hour. After his second wreck, he explained, "I figured I didn't kill myself or anybody else, so I decided to stop driving while was ahead."

Undaunted, he found that Clinton, Iowa, located on the Mississippi riverfront, was an ideal town for someone who didn't drive. He could walk almost anywhere he needed to go, take a bus, or call a cab.

When he was 55, Joyce decided to visit their daughter in Houston. Dan chose to stay home. He told her to go and have a good time as he confidently explained if he needed to go anywhere he could just ride his daughter Gwen's 10-speed bike that she had left in the garage.

His first trip, on her bike, around the block was also down a hill. He said, "It went so fast, I was seriously thinking of jumping off. But I made it to the bottom. I learned my lesson, just stay away from the steep hills. As I kept riding, I found I really liked it, and I began riding to the riverfront.

"Next, I rode out into the country. It was so relaxing looking at the scenery and seeing the animals. It just got better and better."

Over time, Dan began to meet people who belonged to the local bicycle club. They invited him to ride with them. In May at the age of 56, he purchased a hybrid bicycle, and by July he was ready to take on Iowa's RAGBRAI tour—the oldest, largest and longest recreational bicycle touring ride in the world. In the midst of 17,000 bicycles, he finished that 493-mile race. He finally found his place and felt like he truly belonged. Dan was bitten by the "bike bug."

Finally, he was positioned to join bike tours across the nation. Amazingly, he racked up 23 long-distance bike tours in states including Florida, Michigan, Illinois, Ohio, and Colorado.

Dan has become a collector of various biking paraphernalia. He owns about 90 biking jerseys, a variety of helmets, and a uniquely decorated Camelbak backpack which holds 100 ounces of water ready when needed.

In 1997, Dan and Joyce relocated to Fairfield. Initially, his routine was to rise early, show up at the Sunrise Cafe and at 9:00 then head off down the road. He started with Tomball, then eventually branched out to other local areas like Conroe and Lake Walden.

Traffic never bothered Dan. He had safety consciousness on his side. But, he admits that he has been hit. "One time," he explained, "I was coming up Barker Cypress from Houston. I had my helmet mirror on and adjusted to my other mirrors. Traffic was heavy and coming at me. This guy in a pickup truck was coming toward me. He sped up but didn't make the turn into Riata Ranch and hit the wall. Quickly, I assessed the situation, 'I'm going to T-Bone this guy.' Suddenly, I remembered reading about a similar situation. I needed to slide my rear-end all the way back on the bicycle and hit both brakes as hard as possible and to make my bike fishtail. I did exactly that and my bike fishtailed. Casually, I drove right into Riata Ranch and came out the other end of the subdivision, unscathed."

Another time he remembered, "I was riding on Cypress North Houston, this gal was following her boyfriend. She cut in front of me. I moved over at an angle, and she hit my front tire. I went down. All I got was four stitches and dented frame."

"When it comes to cycling," Dan smiled, "I don't consider myself an expert, just a safety conscious biker."

My interview ended way too early. It was evident that Dan had a lot more to teach me about biking and safety. Sadly, time was running out. How is it possible to draw an ending to this story? My sense is there is no way. I hope that you take time to introduce yourself to Dan when you find him at Snowflake Donuts or Nyam Nyam Cafe. When you see him walking down Mason Rd., offer him a ride. Dan is one of our community treasures. Please take the time to appreciate him.

Safety in Fairfield

by Mark Herman
Precinct 4

A Constable's Office is available to improve the quality of life for our citizens by working collaboratively with area law enforcement, commissioner's court, our community, and our contract holders to prevent crime, enforce the law, reduce fear, increase mobility and target violent offenders for prosecution.

In addition to our pro-active police patrols in the Fairfield community, we also provide a community oriented policing approach. Our deputies interact with the communities and understand we are there to serve.

Through the summer we will also conduct numerous anti-crime police initiatives in the Fairfield community. These will include, undercover police operations, reverse sting operations and many other enterprises. Our approach includes vacation watches where our deputies check homes when residents are gone on vacation and keep an eye on their residence while they are away. Citizens can visit our website at Constablepct4.com for the numerous programs we provide in our crime fight efforts.

We are also big in 2 way Communications with our citizens on our social media sites that include, FB, Nextdoor, and Twitter... We like showing citizens arrests and crime in their areas to keep them better informed. Also, we like to show that we are winning the fight against crime!

Did you know a visit to the ER can cost as much as five times more than a visit to Excel Urgent Care, for the same problem?

Swenke's Kids Placed THIRD in the World for Their Imagination

submitted by Jill Fondren

Destination Imagination (DI) is a creative problem-solving organization that allows students at all levels to work together over several months to solve a challenge in the most creative way possible. BB Swag is a team of all 4th graders from Swenke Elementary who competed with great success this year!

Team members are Marshall Fondren, Isabella Birkelbach, Kennedy Boatman, Linley Adams, Bram Stine and Madison Johnson. Their team managers are Jill and Mallory Fondren. This is the team's second year together. They received the challenge in October and worked over 5 months to dissect the creative process and solve their challenge.

Each Year DI puts out 6 different main challenges one in technical, scientific, engineering, fine arts, improvisation and community service. BB Swag selected the Fine Arts Challenge that this year was called Change of Tune. They had to create an 8-minute musical that included a change of plans with a $150 budget. Some highlights of their challenge were:

- Include music and lyrics that enhance the storytelling.
- Create and present a spectacle as part of the musical.
- Design and integrate a set change into the musical.
- Create and present two Team Choice Elements that show off the team's interests, skills, areas of strength, and talents.

The team chose to create a skit about a little boy who wants to run away from home after his mom tells him he isn't old enough to do anything fun. He ends up in a mythical world underneath his bed. The little boy meets the monsters under his bed and decides that their world is incredible! However, he soon starts to miss his mom and wants to come home, only to realize he has no idea how to get back! The monsters help guide him. They recognize that the lullaby the boy's mom sings to him every night is the key to getting him back to the human world.

This team created a weight-bearing bed that transformed into the world underneath it complete with monsters to go with their skit! The monsters personalities came to life through the creative use of different materials like Lays potato chip bags for the Lazy Monster, Smarties for the Smartie Pants monster, and Dum Dum suckers for the not so smart monster.

In addition to the main challenge, the team prepared for an Instant Challenge that they needed to solve at each tournament. Lots of work goes into this at practices, preparing them to tackle a challenge in about 5 minutes. The "Challenges" are either performance or task-based so teams must either build a structure with minimal materials, such as straws, paper, mailing labels, paper clips, cups, etc. or create an improvised skit. Instant

Challenge counts for 25% of their score.

In early March BB Swag took their finished product to the Regional Competition in Katy where they took first place and were given the Di Vinci Award for extreme creativity. After a few tweaks of their Main Challenge in April, they were off to the State Competition in Mansfield where they placed second and advanced to the Global Competition. Globals are held yearly in May at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville. Teams from all over the world come to compete with the same six main challenges.

Over 17,000 people representing more than 15 countries were present. There were 83 teams in the Fine arts challenge at Globals, and BB Swag placed THIRD. Over the course of their DI seasons, these kids have learned to work together to solve a problem and have come out of their shells. Many learned to SING in front of an audience when just a few months ago they were too shy to talk. These kids learned that hard work does pay off and they can't wait to get started on next year's challenge!

Walgreens Helps Fight Child Poverty

Submitted by Don Crowley, Manager

As a company, Walgreens helped raise $24M for the Red Nose Fund to help fight child poverty! At the end of 4 years, the program will positively impact over 10M children living here locally, in the US and around the world!

Special Thanks to Tyler Roberts and the FSA Association for allowing us access to the baseball fields for the Red Nose Day Homerun Derby. Also a big thanks to Tyler Roberts and Chad McDaniel and their crew for preparing the grounds after we had day after day of afternoon thunderstorms.

More thanks go out to all those who came out to volunteer their time. Many people from local businesses, Cy Ranch & Cy Falls Key Clubs as well as residents from Fairfield, Hockley, Coles Crossing and from all around came out to volunteer. Thank you to all of the Walgreen team members who donated their time as well as various stores in the Cypress and Tomball area, which help man multiple stations at the event.

Andy Correa from We Wagon Catering, donated his time manning the barbeque pit and hot dogs to provide food for the participants of the Home Run Derby. For those walk-ups that were hungry, he fed those, and all proceeds went to Red Nose Day.

Jeff Landry of JPL Entertainment provided a DJ named Zack who made it fun and inviting and created a festive atmosphere for all. Zack also was accommodating by helping to identify all of the silent auction winners.

Many Vendors came out to show support. Thanks to the following: Bahama Bucks, Local Neighbourhood App, Firehouse Subs, Marcos Pizza, Gulf Coast Blood Center, Dermatology of Northwest Houston, generously organized ?, Courtney Creations, BHGRE Gary Green, The Round Top Collection Store, and Jersey Mikes.

Donna Slaven, from The Round Top Collection Store, went above and beyond, by donating 20% of their proceeds from Saturday business in their Fairfield Town Center location!

For those that could not make it but wanted to be represented, some of the local business donated items for a silent auction. Some of those businesses that deserve recognition are as follows: Tutto Bene Italian Restaurant, Webb's Automotive, The Round Top Collection Store, Dermatology of Northwest Houston, Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu, Softball with Sher, and Mod Pizza. Coke provided drinks and Ronnie of Ronnie's Ice donated between 400 & 800 lbs of ice.

Coke and Houston Distributors donated Houston Astros tickets which were raffled and added to the excitement of the fundraising event. Raffle tickets were only $1 per ticket, which made it a favorite item.

HEBuddy also came out to make an appearance, but the rain got the better of him. HEBuddy came out last year, and we will try and get him out for the kids next year as well.

Next year we will try and have some inflatable jump houses and fun attractions like that, for the kids to enjoy.

There are so many people to thank. I know that there are some I may be leaving off but it was indeed a successful turn out and event. Despite the sudden downpour right when things were peaking, we managed to raise $2500 for Red Nose Day!

Our goal was $5000, and I know we would have surpassed that had it not been for the rain. There is so much potential in the years to come for this annual event. I am aware that more organization is needed. With what we learned this year about our areas of weakness, we will plan to improve in those areas. Thanks to everyone in the community who came out and helped to establish an annual event. Hopefully everyone in the community will come to look forward to and enjoy the Red Nose Day Homerun Derby!

Christ the Redeemer

CHRIST the
♦ Catholic Church ♦

Fair Ladies of Christ the Redeemer, or FLOC, is a faith and fellowship group for the women who live in Fairfield and Lakes of Fairhaven that attend Christ the Redeemer Catholic Church.

We generally meet once a month, usually at a member's home, or a local restaurant, and occasionally at Christ the Redeemer. Our meetings consist of food and drinks, prayer and fellowship! We occasionally have a speaker on topics that pertain to our faith, have fun craft nights, attend Christ the Redeemer events, try out new restaurants, and we also "give back" to the community and the church with some sort of charity or donation activity several times a year.

Our main goals are:

- To bring the CtR women of these two neighborhoods together to make social connections with each other,
- To support one another,
- To surround ourselves with women who share a common faith.
- To bring those that are hesitant to attend CtR each weekend for Mass (due to the large size of the parish) back to Mass because there will be a friendly face in the crowd.

For more information, please contact Amy Wilkes at apw1974@juno.com, or search for our group on Facebook - Fair Ladies of Christ the Redeemer (FLOC) - and request to join our closed group. We look forward to meeting you at our next event!

We'll See You Later by Melanie Vitovsky

June... Last days of school, last days of Spring, last days of this year's exchange program. Saying goodbye is tough. June is one of the hardest months of all for my family because we host exchange students in the high school program.

This past month has had wonderful moments and many sad ones for Greenheart exchange students and families across the country as students spend their last days in America and begin departing. Over the last several weeks we have had to say many farewells, and there are more to come, but the most difficult by far is always our own.

Adel is our 10th exchange student to live with us. She challenged us and helped us to see things even differently than we did before. Though she has been gone a few days now, I find myself occasionally wandering into her empty room and looking back on this year.

After hosting so many teenagers we didn't raise, we've thought to take a break, but with each one, I feel more grateful and blessed that we didn't stop. All of our experiences have been successful, though not without challenges, and these kids have genuinely become sons and daughters of our hearts.

We love them, care for them, pray for them, stay in touch, and follow their futures once they are gone. Most often they're able to come back and visit—those are the best days, and I'm eagerly anticipating Julie's visit from Germany this summer—but sometimes we don't know when we will get to see them again.

I've had many people tell me they don't know how we do it every year knowing we will have to say goodbye, but the answer to that is easy. We choose not to say goodbye. Instead, we say, "we'll see you later."

As on a painting that one of my daughters gave us with a map of the world and the statement, "distance means so little when someone means so much." It is like the song we could miss the pain, but then we would have to miss the dance. The dance is worth it.

They touch our hearts and influence our children, setting good examples, and occasionally, helping us teach our children some lessons through mistakes they make. They are teenagers after all! There is no experience or program quite like this one and what hosting has brought our family there are not enough words to

Summer Events

WHEN WOMEN OBEY GOD sessions:

Monday evenings each month: July 2, Aug 6, Sept 10, Oct 1, Nov 5
6:30pm - dinner 7:00pm - guest speaker 8:00 – group discussion
$ Love Donation

This series started as a heart nudge and turned into a passionate need. Our community ladies have come running to hear and be encouraged as they desire to HEAR God and OBEY when He gives them a calling and learn HOW to follow. But what happens when obstacles appear? What happens when you base your results/efforts on your own resources instead of expecting Him to provide? Come to hear a local woman share her courage and testimony and what God is asking her to do now!

Monday Mentors

Monday lunchtime each month: July 9, Aug 13, Sept 17, Oct 15, Nov 19

11:00 - lunch 11:30 - guest speaker 12:30 – networking
$10 per person

Join us as our community Business Leaders come to share their Testimony and Tips to help educate, encourage and refresh those just starting their own adventure and/or stepping out to try new things. Often all we really need is to SEE the person and HEAR their story vs. a pile of self-help books or the latest apps and technology. Each month a guest will describe his/her vision, obstacles he/she overcame and then will inspire and help YOU to accomplish your desires!

Coming...

- * Common Grounds – The Vineyard will be open to the public for lunch, quiet time, coffee and cookies, meeting with friends, obtaining resources or mentoring, etc....

describe. So instead of focusing on goodbyes, we focus on hello.

Maria from Poland will be our 11th daughter, and she'll arrive in August. We are already in touch. She even sent us a super thoughtful package and a note of thanks that we chose her (a first from a student that hasn't even arrived yet!). We have students from Poland, Germany, Brazil, Montenegro, and Japan in our local group already for the 2018-2019 school year.

We have many more boys and girls that need host families from over 50 different countries. They are just waiting to see what family will choose them. All students speak English, come with their own spending money, and health insurance. Families are just asked to provide room & board and caring support.

It's a fabulous opportunity. Can your family or one that you know consider making a dream come true by opening their heart and home, and say "hello" with us to an international exchange student for the school year?
