Visitors Welcome! Meeting at Activity Center

Successfully landscape your Bridgeland home!

Speaker: Mark Herbert

So you are finally tired of looking at the landscaping plants installed at the choice of your builder or prior owner, but not sure what to do. Mark Herbert will share ideas on how you can change your look from drab to fab. He will discuss overcoming the fear of making the decision to take action and create a plan to install landscaping with plants you actually like. Although not a master gardener, Mark has removed many existing landscaping plants at his new Bridgeland home and replaced them with his preferred choice for that area in his yard. He learned about types of soils, beds and plants that grow well in Bridgeland and what to plant to achieve a new personalized design. $10.00 program fee for non-members. We will have lunch at a nearby restaurant.
