Neighborhood Voting Representatives Roles and Responsibilities

Our upcoming NVR election is right around the corner in November. Interested in getting involved in the community? To be effective representatives for your neighborhood additional roles and responsibilities should include:

- Actively engage in the community in an effort to improve the quality of life in Eagle Springs.
- Represent residents' needs and issues in their neighborhood, while avoiding representing certain portions or specific interests.
- Identify issues raised by residents within their neighborhood by communicating in person, via phone, e-mail or the Eagle Springs website.

- Facilitate communications between residents, committees, the Board of Directors and the management company.
- Maintain regular communications with other NVRs as an invaluable source of ideas, experience and best practices.
- Operate only as a recommending body to the ESCA and the Board of Directors (NVRs are not involved in the management of the ESCA).

We realize you have a choice so we appreciate the opportunity to earn your business. Building clients for life while giving back to the community in order to make a difference!

September is when the fall selling season begins and heats up through Thanksgiving. Buyers want to get into their home before Christmas or the New Year to take advantage of the Homestead Exemption that they will receive if they are living in their new home before the New Year begins. Buyers with children also want to be in their home before school starts in January. September is a good time to get your home on the market if you are looking to sell. The fall selling season also makes for a good buying season with the increase in listed homes bringing new buying opportunities. If you are in the market to sell, please give me a call and allow me to show you my proven individualized marketing plan for your home. My marketing plan and sales technique along with my networking has allowed me to sell more homes in Eagle Springs than anyone else. Eagle Springs is the main focus of my real estate business and I continue to be involved in the Eagle Springs Community.

I take "Building Clients for Life While Giving Back to The Community" seriously. From the Rebekah Snipp Scholarship Program to area High School Seniors, to sponsoring activities or teams in Eagle Springs, to helping homeowners sell homes, Eagle Springs is an important community to me personally.

This is a special time of year as we announce the scholarship winners. In 2017, I began giving 1 scholarship in memory of Dena Ruffin, a friend that lost her battle to cancer in 2016. Below are the names of the Rebekah Snipp Scholarship Winners. Each of these scholarship recipients will receive a scholarship check in the amount of $1,000 at the end of their first semester, later this year. Congratulations to the following:

Emily Pearson – Atascocita High School (In Memory of Dena Ruffin)

Kyle Neel – Kingwood Park High School

Megan Mize – Woodlands High School

If there is a subject relating to real estate that you or anyone else would like for me to touch on in my Newsletter page, please let me know.

*Thank you to everyone that has trusted me in my real estate business.
Respectfully, Rebekah Snipp*

Celebrating Cultures in Primrose® Classrooms Helps Children Develop Important Life Skills

Children today are growing up in the most connected world we've ever seen, and learning about and appreciating other cultures is important to their lifelong success. At Primrose School of Eagle Springs, children learn about the cultures represented in their classrooms and explore different parts of the world as part of our Happy Hearts Character Development and Life SkillsSM program. Our Celebrating Cultures unit helps children develop an understanding and appreciation for different backgrounds along with a sense of empathy.

Ellen Galinsky, president and co-founder of the Families and Work Institute and former president of the National Association for the Education of Young Children (NAEYC), defines perspective-taking as an essential life skill that involves putting aside one's own thoughts and feelings in order to understand how someone else perceives the world. In her book, "Mind in the Making," Galinsky explains that young children who learn this broader view have more developed conflict resolution skills and adjust to kindergarten faster, as they are better at anticipating their teachers' expectations.

"As our society becomes more diverse and the world becomes more interconnected, it is essential that children learn to value different backgrounds and perspectives," said Paula Morgan, Franchise Owner of Primrose School of Eagle Springs. "Skills like understanding other people's viewpoints translate into later-life experiences and prepare children for the world outside of our classrooms."

Primrose teachers introduce children to different cultures and help them develop an appreciation for diversity in fun and meaningful ways. Children explore the following themes, which are integrated into daily experiences that help children apply the concepts to their own lives:

World Heritages: Primrose children learn that most people living in the United States have a separate country or culture of origin. Students participate in a Celebrating Cultures parade, during which students dress in attire representing their individual heritage. Younger children participate by contributing diversity-themed artwork to the festivities.

World Sports: Children learn about and participate in different sports from around the world, practicing teamwork at the same time. Teachers also introduce new sports vocabulary that is incorporated into daily activities.

World Animals: Children in Primrose classrooms explore animals from all over the world. They create arts and crafts that relate to the animal they are learning about and read books to reinforce their understanding of different animals and species.

World Music: Primrose children learn about the different instruments used to create music from other cultures. They are introduced to vocabulary words like "bongo" and "drum" and sing songs from different parts of the world.

At Primrose, we believe who children become is as important as what they know. That's why we emphasize character and life skills along with intellectual, physical and creative skills. Nurturing an appreciation for other cultures and different perspectives is just one of the ways we help little ones develop the foundation they need for learning and life.

NEIGHBORHOOD NIGHT OUT REGISTRATION IS HERE!

Neighborhood Night Out is a night we focus on getting out to meet each other, in an effort to deter criminal mischief. Our date this year is the evening of October 6th, starting at 6 pm.

NNO started as an effort to promote involvement in crime prevention activities, police-community partnerships, neighborhood camaraderie and send a message to criminals letting them know that neighborhoods are organized and fighting back.

It's time to register your street for our upcoming NNO celebration! Registering your party will entitle you to an incentive party pack and gift card to be used for your celebration. Party packs will be distributed to registered parties via the street captain, and are assigned via a lottery based system. All parties must be registered by September 21st. Party packs will be available for pick up at the Onsite Office the following week.

Residents can register one street or a group of streets, but streets can only be registered once.

Please collaborate with your neighbors to designate street captains.

We will still carry on the tradition of hosting "Movie Night on the Green" for the neighborhood with the largest percentage of participating streets.

The winning neighborhood will enjoy a movie, free popcorn and refreshments courtesy of ESCA.

More information and registration can be found on InsideEagleSprings.com.
