SHOTS FOR HOLLY SLATES ANNUAL KICKOFF

Flu season is around the corner, and the Shots for Holly crew is gearing up for its busiest time of the year.

Founder and president, Dr. Michelle Becker, said the group's annual kickoff party is slated for Saturday, Sept. 8, at Creekwood Grill, 12710 Telge Road, Cypress, Texas 77429.

"We are thrilled to be back at what was The Shack again this year," she said. "Festivities will start 2 and run till about 5 p.m. We will have Walgreens on-hand to administer the flu shots for us."

A kickoff party might seem odd for flu season, but this is the fifth year the organization has held such an event.

"It's a fun way to remind family, friends and our followers that it is flu season and time to get their annual vaccine," said Nicole Travis, Shots for Holly treasurer. "We will have a few silent auction items and Chinese raffle items. Proceeds from the auction and raffle will help us cover the cost of flu shots for those in need."

"And, our favorite band, SoulShine, will be on-hand to provide the soundtrack for the afternoon."

Most health insurance plans will cover a flu shot, so attendees are encouraged to bring their cards.

"In the event someone is uninsured, we will help them get a flu shot," Mary Hebert, Shots for Holly secretary, said.

Flu season, which typically runs September through March, went into May this year.

"It was a rough year," she said. "There were a lot of people who caught the flu multiple times. Doctors even encouraged folks to get a second flu shot."

There were a record number of flu-related hospitalizations, according to the Centers for Disease Control.

"More than 30,000 Americans were hospitalized with complications from the flu," Becker said. "The number of deaths as a result was staggering, too. While the flu shot may not preclude you from getting the flu, it can reduce the length of your illness, as well as lessen the potential for related illnesses, such as pneumonia."

About Shots for Holly

Cy-Fair resident Dr. Michelle Becker and a team of dedicated volunteers started Shots for Holly on Jan. 31, 2014, following the death of a friend. Forty-one-year-old Holly Munsinger succumbed to the flu virus. Once believed to be a virus that affects mostly children and the elderly, the recent flu outbreaks affect all ages. Still, less than 50 percent of the population is vaccinated against the flu virus. Thus, the Shots for Holly team built a multi-purpose platform to raise awareness concerning the dangers of the flu virus, the importance of getting an annual flu vaccine, and provide flu shots to people in need. The Corporation's mission shall be to educate the general public on the benefits of receiving an annual flu vaccine, dispel the myths inhibiting the receipt of an annual flu vaccine, facilitate the receipt of annual flu vaccinations through charitable means, and provide charitable relief to the families, especially minor children, of persons who have passed away from flu related illnesses. Shots for Holly is a 501(c)(3) charity organization. In 2018, Shots for Holly was named the CyFair Houston Chamber of Commerce's Nonprofit of the Year. ## KNOCK OUT CHILD ABUSE: INAUGURAL CHARITY BOXING EVENT BENEFITING THE CHILDREN'S ASSESSMENT CENTER

by The PR Boutique

Thu, September 20, 2018
6:30 PM – 10:00 PM CDT

The Revaire
7122 Old Katy Road
Houston, TX 77024

Are you ready to rumble? Chaired by Ursaline Hamilton and Jordan Seff, the inaugural Knock Out Child Abuse benefiting The Children's Assessment Center is a spinoff of Black Tie Boxing, a professional charity boxing match hosted by Benjamin Berg and Lou Savarese in February 2017. More than 20 amateur boxers, who work in the Houston energy industry as commodity traders, brokers and executives by day, have been recruited to fight in this exclusive, one-of-a-kind charity event. Before they battle it out for a good cause in September, the boxers will endure extensive training under the supervision and coaching of Former Heavyweight Boxing Champion, Lou Savarese. While the men contend in 10 three-round fights, guests will roll with the punches while indulging in passed hors d'oeuvres, libations and a 4-course seated dinner by B&B Butchers & Restaurant at reserved ringside seats and tables. Outside the ring, the fighters will also compete against each other to see who can raise the most funds for The CAC before the big match. Proceeds from the ticket and table sales, sponsorships and donations will benefit the Houston-based nonprofit whose mission is to provide a professional, compassionate and coordinated approach to the treatment of sexually abused children and their families and to serve as an advocate for all children in our community.

See you at the show!!

STYD History

Our club hosted its first Craft Show in late 1990's with just a few vendors coming to a monthly meeting for club members to shop. We grew to 100 vendors in 2006 and relocated to Lone Star College Cy-Fair campus. After having to cancel our 2008 show due to hurricane Ike we moved again in 2009 with more vendors and shoppers than ever. Our new and present location is the Berry Center located on Barker Cypress and West Rd. Our event is the first major show of the fall season and includes almost 300 vendors with a large variety of manufactured and handmade items including clothing, jewelry, food products, home décor, and many other unique products and services. This show has something for everyone and draws close to 7000 shoppers each year.

It is truly amazing what our Women's Club can do when we put our mind to it. We hope to see you there. Please stop by our booth near the main entrance and visit with some of our members. We would love to visit with you.
