FALL BACK
on November 4th!

Interesting facts about Daylight Saving Time ...

- It's actually 'Saving' not 'Savings'
- Hawaii and Arizona don't observe it
- Benjamin Franklin was the first to suggest DST in 1784, as a joke
- DST is always initiated at 2:00 a.m., not midnight
- Many local fire departments encourage changing or charging batteries in your smoke detectors

Fall Clean Up: 10 Things to Purge Every Fall

Adding a fall clean up routine to your year is a great way to get the house ready for the holidays with less stress!

Fall Kitchen Decluttering

Spices & Seasonings - Take all the spices, seasonings, and condiments out of the cabinet and give the shelves a quick cleaning. Before putting everything back, check the expiration dates. Have a piece of paper handy to keep track of what needs to be replaced. You'll be all set for holiday baking!

Freezer - Sometimes our freezer becomes a black hole where things go in and never come out. The fall is the perfect time to get it cleared out and ready for winter.

BONUS: If you have a little extra time, purge the pantry/food cabinet as well!

Fall Closet Decluttering

Sandals & Summer Shoes - Be honest about what shoes were REALLY worn this summer. Now is the time to donate or sell the others. The most effective way to tackle this is to remove ALL the shoes from the closet and then put back the ones that you wear. That also gives you a chance to wipe down the shelves or shoe organizer.

Swimwear - Fall is also a great time to purge the swimwear. I seem to add swimsuits and cover-ups, but never get rid of any.

BONUS: Peek at the family's winter coats and donate any that have been outgrown or are no longer needed now before winter hits. Someone will be so grateful that you did this one!

Fall Garage Decluttering

Toys - Any big toys the kids have outgrown should be cleared out in the fall, before the holidays. It's the perfect time to donate them.

Garden Tools & Products - Nothing kills my spring planting motivation faster than being ready to plant and finding everything a mess from the prior year.

Fall Living Room Decluttering

Magazines & Books - Do a quick sweep and lighten the clutter by purging outdated magazines. Look for books you know you'll never read again and pass them along to a new home.

Throw Blankets - At one point, I thought you could never have too many blankets around the living room. Then I kept adding new ones through both purchases and gifts and passed the saturation point.

Fall Bedroom Decluttering

Timer Challenge - I feel like everyone gathers different kinds of clutter in the bedroom, but that doesn't mean we can't address it. Set the time on your cell phone or microwave for 15 minutes, and try to find as many things as you can that can be removed.

Fall Bathroom Decluttering

Product Purge - Chances are you've got some beauty products that are never touched lurking in the bathroom. I'm definitely guilty of trying out products, not loving them, but not wanting to get rid of the. That is just crazy though! Keeping them around to clutter up the bathroom isn't doing any good.

I bet you and your home will both feel a bit lighter when you are done.
