Hill Country Galleria March Events & Happenings

SATURDAY NIGHT CONCERT SERIES

Saturdays, April 13, 20 at 7 p.m.

Hill Country Galleria is hosting its popular Saturday Night Concert Series in the Central Plaza from now through June 1. The series continues in the fall from September 14 through October 12. Guests can sit back, relax and enjoy this free event with family and friends on the Central Plaza. Guests are encouraged to bring blankets or chairs to lounge on the grassy lawn during the show and arrive early to shop and dine at Hill Country Galleria retailers and even get their meal delivered straight to the Central Plaza. Austin City Limits Radio will be the host. Events are free and open to the public and dogs are welcome.

April Lineup

April 13 - Carson McHone Band

Years before Rolling Stone was praising Carson McHone's rule-breaking roots music, the Austin, Texas native played weeknights in local bars like The White Horse, keeping dancers dancing and drinkers drinking. With her 21st birthday still in the distance, McHone entertained late-night crowds bearing witness to the good times and bad decisions that fill a busy bar. It was a rare, raw education. She pumped her music full of details from an early adulthood spent in the company of the heartbroken and high-toleranced. In 2015, McHone released Goodluck Man which earned her a cover story in The Austin Chronicle as well as the support of local icons like Ray Wylie Hubbard, who said she "writes songs like her life depends on it." Then she hit the road, touring the U.S. (and beyond) with acts like Shakey Graves, Gary Clark, Jr., and Joe Pug. Her writing style widened and her music evolved. McHone's 2018 release builds a similar bridge. Purposeful, pointed, and poignant, Carousal is a compelling ride.

April 20 - South Austin Moonlighters

When Phil Bass, Chris Beall, Phil Hurley, and Lonnie Trevino Jr, four established Austin TX musicians, decide to join forces and play together just because it's fun, you're going to get something special. Such is the case for The South Austin Moonlighters, a band that blends blues, folk, soul, rock, and country, who can flip the switch from slow melodic country to gravelly rocking blues without a hitch. Think Little Feat meets Los Lobos with a splash of The Flying Burrito Bros, and you start to peel away the many musical layers of sound that makes up the S.A.M. Using a four part harmony at times accompanied with some brilliant guitar playing, S.A.M. plays with a full-bodied sound, and puts off an aura of down to earth Southern Blues and Country Rock, that can make even coldest days seem warm. The Band mainly does Originals songs in their set and for the love of music, they throw in choice Covers that fans and newbie fans absolutely love.

PHOTOS WITH THE EASTER BUNNY

April 12 - 20, times vary

The Easter Bunny will be visiting the Hill Country Galleria from April 12 through 20, and families can stop by to meet the Easter Bunny and get photos taken. ## New Pastor Named at One Chapel Lake Travis

One Chapel Lake Travis welcomes Cynthia Griffith as a new Associate Pastor, serving as a women's counselor, Sunday ministry team leader and prophetic ministry leader at the church, located at 22800 Hwy 71 West. In addition, she currently serves on the Texas Apostolic Prayer Network that prays for Texas legislators and their staff and for local and state issues.

Griffith joins One Chapel after serving as the vice president and co-pastor of College Station Church of Prayer (CSHOP) and director of the Texas House of Prayer Network, both in College Station, Texas from 2010-16. In her role at CSHOP, in which she and her husband, Hyde, built the ministry from the ground up, she managed the budget and 5-8 staff, preached, taught, led worship and mentored members; planned and led conferences, pastor gatherings, and organized prayer ministries. Serving on the executive leadership team, Griffith also led the CSHOP Campus Ministry at Texas A&M and the missions department.

Griffith holds a bachelor of science in biochemistry from the College of Charleston in South Carolina. She served on the boards of her children's school's Parent Teacher Organizations when they attended public school in the Houston area.

Leading others into the presence of God is Griffith's passion, igniting a lasting fire in their hearts, and training them to follow Jesus boldly. She has a particular desire to see students of all ages encounter the life changing love of God. She has led prayer and worship ministries in multiple cities for over 25 years.

Spicewood Arts Society Beto and the Fairlanes Return to Spicewood Stage

Celebrating the tenth “Toast to Tony” anniversary, Beto and the Fairlanes return to the Spicewood Vineyards stage with special guests Javier Chaparro, Mitch Watkins and Tomas Ramirez.

Beto and the Fairlanes have been delighting audiences for 40 years with their original blend of jazz, swing and world beat music. In 2017 they were inducted into the Austin Music Hall of Fame and their star was installed on Corpus Christi’s Sound Texas Music Walk of Fame.

The band was founded in late 1970’s by Robert “Beto” Skiles, a native of San Antonio with degrees in music from UT-Austin and the University of North Texas. Skiles is well known as a jazz pianist in Austin.

“I expected the club to last no more than a year, maybe two at best,” Skiles said. “Well, miracle of miracles, as of this writing, Beto and the Fairlanes has flourished for over 40 years!”

During that magical music decade that was the ‘70’s, KUT featured them in a live broadcast. All the station’s phones lit up, creating an instant fan base that’s kept growing.

The annual concerts, closing the Spicewood Arts Society’s season, commemorate Tony Campise, a beloved Austin woodwind musician who met an untimely death in 2010.

The concert begins at 7 p.m. at the Spicewood Vineyards Event Center, 1419 Co. Rd. 409, Spicewood. Complimentary water, coffee and snacks will be served at intermission and wine is available for purchase. Attendees are asked not to bring alcohol onto the Vineyard grounds.
