From The Editor's Desk

If you are like the rest of us, you are probably feeling a little overwhelmed about now. There are so many things going on: graduation parties, family get-togethers, sports meets, weddings, baby showers—the list goes on. On top of all those social obligations, we have a lot of other reasons to be out and about and away from our homes.

That is why you are going to want to pay heed to our cover story offered by Rocky Martinez, Sales Manager for Hawk Security Systems. He gives us plenty of statistics and reasons to begin looking into home security. You'll also want to learn more about Andy Corra's dream of creating a Cheers-like restaurant right here in Fairfield. And, last but certainly not least we introduce you to the Leceras who recently published Zombies Don't Eat Veggies! A children's book they wrote and illustrated.

Enjoy the month of May, get out and walk the trails, enjoy the parks, watch the ducks waddle to and fro, and remember to admire the flowers.

As always, remember dear readers, I'm looking for stories—ones that you write or suggest. If you see a good deed being done, find one of the Cub Scouts Love Rocks, or just have a great idea for a "Feel-Good" story, please contact me at jackiedevine@peelinc.com or call me at 832.316.6006.

Inwood Park Pool Facelift!

During the off-season, your Board of Directors along with your new community manager have been working diligently to update the pool amenities. The following is just a sample of what we have been working on and updates should begin shortly.

The exterior of the building has been power washed; new tables, umbrellas, chairs, lounges, and a new pool slide have been ordered. The restrooms & guardhouse are being updated to include baby changing stations, new lighting, painting, etc. There will also be updated landscaping around the exterior of the pool building, the pool sign will be repainted and landscaping added.

After the 2019 pool season, the plan is to resurface the pool, including new decking throughout the pool area.

If you have any inquiries, please email your Board.

Have a safe and fun summer!

Home Security and Peace of Mind

by Jackie Devine

If you've recently begun considering the purchase of a home security system, you're in good company. According to the New York Times, the security industry is projected to expand into a $47.5 billion business by 2020. The reason could be attributed to current statistics showing that across the nation every 13 seconds a home burglary takes place. That's four burglaries a minute, 240 an hour and nearly 6,000 a day.

Closer to home, growing crime rates throughout Cypress reflect a chilling reality. A recent query on crimereports.com revealed 1,531 incidents (violent, property, quality of life) in the 77433 zip code posted between March 10 and April 9, 2019.

Branch manager of Hawk Security Services, Rocky Martinez explained, "Some people are still shying away from taking appropriate home security measures, but supporting data has reflected if you have a security system, you are 33% less likely to be a target. We like to say, 'We prevent bad things from happening to Good people.' But, they need to quit living that '50s mindset leaving their doors unlocked, purses unguarded, and phones in visible sight. They would be better served to realize "Happy Days" is a thing of the past."

Customers seem to feel a peace of mind when Hawk Security enters the picture. As Leah Dicesare claims, "Rocky came to our house, upgraded all our security systems and walked through each step. Even after we had the service, he's always been responsive and helpful with any questions."

Says Rocky, "When we leave for work, we are hoping to come home to a smiling, happy family and a home that is safe, secure, and out of harm's way. However, with our active lifestyles and hectic work schedules, safety has become one of our most significant issues.

"Increasingly, more people are seeking ways to protect and secure their family and property, zeroing in on powerfully intelligent, proven technologies. They are demanding totally customizable, fully automated, highly integrated systems that can identify and anticipate risks and respond to them promptly.

"When they discover Hawk Security Services they are literally blown away by its capabilities." Rocky added, "Quite frankly so was I when Hawk Security leaders approached me about joining their team. Truthfully, I had no desire to return to the corporate world after retiring comfortably. But, it just took a short introduction to Hawk Security Services, and I was hooked."

Hawk Security offers a top-of-the-line full-service security system that harnesses the potential of artificial intelligence to protect property and safeguard homes. It maintains an "A+" rating with the BBB and has earned repeated recognition as one of the Top 100 Places to Work by the Dallas Morning News. All the same, the feature that gave Rocky the most confidence in the future of the company was its focus on family.

Hawk's mission is to fulfill their customer's security needs with integrity, honesty, enthusiasm and excellent service. No matter how large the company becomes, they are committed to treating all customers like they are a member of their own family.

"That commitment spoke to me," smiled Rocky. "My most priceless treasures are my wife and children. And, because of that, I've done everything in my power to protect them by installing the highest quality security system on the market in our home.

"I'm positive Hawk Security Systems is the best option to protect my most precious gifts from God, I'm comfortable and confident helping other families experience the same peace of mind," Rocky added.

"It's sad but true that many people underestimate the need to take appropriate steps to secure their home. Burglary (or theft) can have devastating consequences for a family emotionally and financially. And, at those times, they need people they can trust."

Local realtor Kristi Newcomb of The Newcomb Group put it this way, "I am constantly referring Rocky to clients and friends. He's always available, truly cares about you and your family's safety and has a great company with state of the art equipment to ensure your home and vehicles are secured."

Since the '80s, Hawk Security has provided 140,000+ monitored security customers technologically advanced security systems which encompass rapid response monitoring. To learn more, visit <https://hawksecurity.com/>. Or contact Rocky at 817. 247.9403.

Rocky relocated to Cypress in 2017 to oversee the Hawk Security System's growth and development in the region. He and his wife Rebecca are the proud parents of five children, and those reasons alone are why Rocky knows the importance of keeping your loved ones as safe and secure as possible.

Cheers to Good Friends and Great Food by Jackie Devine

"Sometimes you wanna go where everyone knows your name, and they're always glad you came." Those words may be from "Cheers," but they're also sentiments of the folks who frequent Andy's Kitchen.

That's just the type of atmosphere that longtime Fairfield resident and second-generation restaurateur, Andy Correa wanted to create when he envisioned opening his casual diner in our community.

"With fast food chains so plentiful I knew I wanted to carve out a different niche," he explained. "I began developing plans for Andy's Kitchen to be a place where I could build great customer relationships and make people feel special while at the same time serve the highest quality food and drinks possible."

"I grew up in Cypress, graduated from Langham Creek, spent twenty-four years in the Operations Department at CFISD and at the same time worked behind the scenes in a number of local food chains. Five years ago, I launched into the catering business and rolled out Andy's Mobil Kitchen operating on the grounds of the Cypress Rosehill Beer Garden.

When you eat at Andy's, you experience good old-fashioned, homemade food. "Everything is made to order," Andy says, "and from placing your order at the counter till it is serviced at your table is typically from 15 to 18 minutes. Plus, we have a great selection of beer and wine."

Andy's Kitchen brings back that small town feeling where real friendship exists, and neighbors care about neighbors.

Andy's Kitchen is located at 15202 Mason Road, Cypress, Texas. 832.244.1087

Hometown Team Publishes Book

by Jackie Devine

When is the last time you put the skids on your hectic schedule, turned off the technology, found a comfy place to relax, grabbed one or two of your kiddos, and shared a good book? If you haven't done that lately, now is maybe the time to create a magical experience with your family that will leave lasting memories and have a lifelong impact.

And, if you are looking for a cleverly illustrated, kid-driven, whimsical book with an over the top plot, you can't go wrong with a fresh-off-the-press copy of Zombies Don't Eat Veggies!

The best part is, "Zombies" was created by two of our own Fairfield residents, author Megan and illustrator Jorge Lacera.

As a married couple, after garnering a solid foundation in media entertainment as writers, designers, and consultants, Megan and Jorge launched Studio Lacera. Today, just a sampling of their clients include companies such as Hasbro, Ghost Story Games, and Random House.

Megan explained, "Our core competency is "story." For example, if a toy company develops a toy, they typically want to develop a book series, movie, and social media content. Our expertise is taking that one little nugget and making it bigger. From there we generate ideas, come up with the storylines, the characters, what they will look like, and what world they will exist in."

I asked where the idea for Zombies Don't Eat Veggies! originated. Megan jumped in, "We knew we wanted to do a zombie book. We like horror movies and pop culture. Lots of kids play with monsters and "scary" characters. Kai, our six-year-old definitely does. Of course, we couldn't let him watch scary movies or tv shows. We wanted to do something that reflected his and other kids' interests but in a safe way. So we came up with a character that had more humanity and humor than a regular zombie.

Jorge added, "We developed Mo, a veggie-loving zombie, as our main character. Kai was very resistant to vegetables. We wanted to introduce him and other kids to the idea that vegetables could be funny, interesting, and delicious. Mo doesn't eat the typical zombie food. He's different."

Working with the storyline had a positive effect on Kai. As they started discussing the book with him and showing him the various drafts, they saw him becoming more open to trying new foods and accepting of veggies like cucumbers and tomatoes.

Now, they are part of his regular diet.

"Zombies" is also based on our family," Megan continued. "We've included both English and Spanish in the book. Jorge was born in Colombia, and he speaks both English and Spanish. Therefore, we wanted to incorporate Spanish and English and also a mix of traditional American food and Latin cuisine. So you will see that multi-cultural flavor reflected in the book."

For Megan and Jorge, it's a calling for them to present diverse stories that reflect differences in people and families. They're currently involved in several projects that reflect multi-cultural perspectives.

To date, the Laceras have submitted a draft for book two of their Zombies Don't Eat Veggies contractual agreement. Opting not to make their second book a series book, "The next one" Jorge elaborated, "involves a plot that entertains, and at some level teaches life lessons, by offering a broader view of a child's world which emphasizes working together, truth, and goodness. The storyline centers around a group of kids whose home is going to be torn down and the lengths they go through to save it."

In closing, I asked them if they had any advice to "would be" authors and illustrators.

Megan replied, "Persistence is the key: it is possible to write part-time or as a professional, but it isn't an easy road. There's a lot of rejection, and some days just don't seem to come together. If you can stay with it, and keep learning, you will eventually get better; you'll find a way to break through.

"I know people who are breaking through at eighteen and others at eighty."

Also, to answer my question on "Why Fairfield?" Jorge emphasized, "We've lived in a lot of different places across the nation from the East Coast to the West Coast. We love Fairfield. We've lived here for nearly two years and plan on staying. We love being close to Megan's sister and her family and our friends in Chappell Ridge.

We have found the Fairfield community to be diverse, which is what we were looking for coming from the West Coast, and at the same time inclusive. It is a place where friends and family reside."

Find out more about the Laceras and "Zombies" at www.studiolacera.com. You can pick up your copy of Zombies Don't Eat Veggies! on Amazon, Barnes and Noble, IndieBound, Walmart.com or Target.com. It's also available at Harris County Libraries.

The Laceras will have a booth at the Fairfield 4th event—if you buy the book and bring it to the booth, they will gladly sign it!

Memorial Herman A Good Community Citizen

Sharing information with residents at Fairfield Creek Estates is of prime concern to our neighborhood Memorial Hermann Cypress Hospital Health System. On March 20th they sent two of their medical specialists as well as their community communications team to offer advice on staying healthy.

Dr. Donald Stafford, Orthopedic Surgeon with UT Ortho, discussed knee and hip health and how to prepare for surgery and how to recuperate afterward! Julie Winkelmann, Occupational Therapist with Memorial Hermann Rogers, demonstrated a variety of “stay-healthy” exercises.

Natalie Rogers, Business Development with UT Ortho and Kara Kovalsky, Senior Marketing & Communications fielded questions and answers on how to take advantage of services offered by some of the region’s top medical specialists.

Yard of the Month

Submitted by Deborah Worley, Yard of the Month Chairperson

We are all happy to see Spring in Fairfield. The sunshine and flowers renew us all. This month we visited One fourth of Fairfield South. The areas included: Blue Meadow including the newest development of homes behind CVS, Baker's Ridge, Autumn Park and Bluebonnet Glen.

The month of May we are featuring the home of Don and Helen Pulnik. Their home is located at 14902 Blue Egret Drive in the Blue Meadow subdivision. Both Don and Helen took me on a tour of their colorful floral gardens.

Gardening is a true passion for both Don and Helen. This is a love they truly share and work at together.

All of the planting areas are professionally bordered in decorative stone at the front of the house, left side of the driveway, around every tree, at the front right corner and along the sides of the home and the corner planting by the back yard gate.

Their yard, like most in their area has mature trees, depending on the time of year some will be adding to the colorful blooms in their yard. Don and Helen walked me through each planter and talked about every plant, they knew every name and how to spell them (thank you Don). I love it. Each planter was planned with blooms that will follow each other. As one passes its peak flowering period another will take the stage. There are some they will dig up and replace.

The section on the left side of the driveway is dedicated to Lilies. As we toured the flowers that were in bloom that day included Azaleas, Gaillardias, Dianthus, Ranunculus Gladiolus, Pansies, Sweet Almond Verbena, Knockout Roses just to name a few.

The Sweet Almond Verbena is a long, spiked flower cluster of tiny almond-scented flowers. So fragrant that it filled their garden with a sweet almond or vanilla-like fragrance. These flowers stay on the bush all summer long and well into the fall. The Butterflies and birds love their nectar.

Don and Helen are very aware of which plants is drought tolerant, need partial sun, shade or full sun. A good example is the Gaillardia (Blanket Flower). This is a drought tolerant plant and adds delightful color to any garden. The flowers bloom from early summer to early fall.

Congratulations Don and Helen Pulnik on our May 2019 Yard of the Month. Your hard work, the love and knowledge of plants is showing beautifully. It was a pleasure meeting you both.

We bet they bring smiles to those who see them. Be part of the fun and create your own for others to find. Or find one of ours and relocate it within Fairfield. Each one is labeled with "#Pack33". If you see one, take a picture, post it here, and tag #Pack33. The Scouts would love to know their rocks are being seen.

What does Independence Day mean to you?

By Joan Hagan

Independence Day, also known as the Fourth of July in the U.S., is a federal holiday commemorating the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, by the Continental Congress declaring that the 13 American colonies regarded themselves as a new nation, the United States of America, and no longer part of the British Empire.

Independence Day is commonly associated with fireworks, parades, barbecues, picnics, concerts, baseball games, family reunions, and political speeches and ceremonies. In addition there are various other public and private events that celebrate the history, government, and traditions of the United States. Independence Day is the National Day of the United States.

In Fairfield, we proudly join in celebrating Independence Day...or, as we like to call it, The Fourth @ Fairfield! Kick off your day with our colorful parade with bands, firetrucks, scouts, floats, and much more! The parade leaves from Ault Elementary at 9AM and winds through the neighborhood to Central Park. Then, following the parade head over to Salyards Middle School for a fun-filled community event, from 10AM-2PM.

Activities include inflatables, a dunk tank, live entertainment, food trucks, game booths, and more! This year, game booths and vendors will be inside the school.

If you and/or your company would like to be a sponsor, a vendor, or one of our entertainers, there's still time! Just go to the Fairfield's Women's Club website at www.fairfieldwomensclub.org for more information. You can also visit the Fourth @ Fairfield event page on the Fairfield Women's Club Facebook page. We welcome singers, dancers, musicians, magicians, etc. for 15-20 minute sets. Come join the fun with us at The Fourth @ Fairfield!

The proceeds from this event go back into the Fairfield community to benefit our schools, fire station, and constables. We can't do this without community support! Thanks to the Fairfield Village Community Association for being the major sponsor of our July 4th Parade and Festivities. Fairfield Women's Club, who produces this event, also wishes to thank Cojen Construction; Karen Clements, Realtor, Better Homes Gary Greene; Goldie Golden Realtor, Sky Real Estate; Andrea Curran Realtor, Zuri Properties; Dawn Fore, Broker Associate, RE/MAX Professional Group; Rae Worley Realty Group; and Randall Bolin of Bolin Designs Pools, for sponsoring some of our activities.

Fairfield Women's Club

The Fairfield Women's Club had some wonderful programs this year and we would like to recap some of the fun for all. We had a wonderful time at our meeting at the Eclectic House/ Devine Wine, then in February we pampered our members with facial masks and lotions then topped that off with a wine tasting by our very own member, Kate Conrey. In March, we were honored with the presentation by Dr. Danny Talwar from Memorial Herman Hospital who helped us recognize heart issue with women. He was wonderful and we followed his presentation with a game of LRC, which was a BLAST!

We will culminate our year with our Annual Banquet. The club offered to pay for half of our banquet cost but it was unanimously voted to save that money for our Fairfield Charities and members pay for their own meal. This year's banquet will be at Salt Grass Steak House on May 21st at 6:00 pm

Ready, Set, Test

The STAAR is the state of Texas testing program based on state curriculum standards in core subjects including reading, writing, mathematics, science, and social studies. All public school students in Texas, grades 3–12, take STAAR tests. Administered in the spring, STAAR tests are given to students at their own school, in regular classrooms that have been cleared and set up to make it easy to focus on the test.

STAAR tests are designed to measure what students are learning in each grade and whether or not they are ready for the next grade. The goal is to ensure that all students receive what they need to be academically successful. Meeting these individual student needs depends greatly on schools, parents, and community members working together.

CCFISD takes the STAAR test very seriously. So do neighborhood schools, teachers and students. On April 5th, Bridgeland High School held a pep rally at Ault Elementary to emphasize the importance of taking the test and to encourage them to do their very best.

Bridgeland is the high school that Ault students will attend in the future.

Salyards Student's Art at Texas State Capitol

Students from Hopper, Salyards, and Thornton middle schools were named winners in the House District 132 Student Art Contest and will have their pieces displayed in State Rep. Gina Calanni's office at the Texas State Capitol and the district's office in Katy.

After receiving a number of excellent pieces of artwork, the district, which serves CFISD and Katy and Waller school districts, expanded the selection of winners from four in two categories to eight. CFISD placed two winners in each category (Capitol Artwork and School Mascot Artwork).

"We were very impressed with the talent of the students and would like to thank each participant and school for the work that went into creating the art pieces," District Director Kaycee Kube said in a letter to the winning schools.

Salyards Middle School eighth-grade student Paxton Hendricks was among four CFISD students to have their artwork recently named a winner in the House District 132 Student Art Contest. The pieces will be displayed in State Rep. Gina Calanni's office at the Texas State Capitol and the district's office in Katy.

If you are a 5th grader who already plays a string instrument and need to audition or if you have other questions regarding instrument sign up, please contact Ms. Lanthier at glynnnes.lanthier@cfisd.net.

We would also like to invite everyone in the community to our spring concert, which will take place on May 23rd at 6:30 p.m. in the Salyards cafeteria. There will be fast, exciting tunes, beautiful, slow tunes, rock music, classical music, fiddly music - a little bit of something for everyone!
