ACIA Annual Easter Egg Hunt

The ACIA Annual Easter Egg Hunt was held Saturday, April 20, 2019. With the help of volunteer Susan Hinshaw and her wonderful family, we were able to set out over 2000 Easter eggs for the children living in the ACIA. Prizes were given out to the lucky children that found one of the Easter bunny's lost buttons. A good time was had by all. We encourage anyone that wasn't able to make it this year, to try next year. We had a great time. Again, special thanks to Susan Hinshaw, and her daughters Mila & Ayla. :)

GERMAN PANCAKES

At least twice a week, German pancakes are my go-to for breakfast. Known alternately as Dutch babies or little Bismarcks, my family loves them. This particular recipe came with my great grandparents from Germany.

I make the batter the night before and store it in the fridge for easy morning prep. The batter can be cut in half, doubled, or tripled. You can make it in virtually any pan that has sides. Just be sure to spray the entire baking vessel with a little Pam, as this pancake crawls up the sides as it bakes and could stick. The batter must be poured into a hot pan.

The below recipe fits nicely in a medium skillet.

Preheat oven to 425 degrees.

Melt ½ stick of butter in an oven proof pan in the oven, so the pan gets nice and hot.

Mix together 2 eggs, ½ cup flour and ½ cup milk with a pinch of salt. It may have some lumps and that's okay. Pour the batter into the melted butter in the skillet, return to oven and bake for 12-15 minutes, until risen and a golden brown. It will deflate a bit once you cut it.

Top with syrup, fruit, powdered sugar, or nothing. It tastes delicious all on its own.

Nota bene: Sometimes these pancakes don't rise. No one knows why. Just try again with different flour or butter or eggs. It's only occurred to me three times in the 25 years I've been making them. You can also cut the butter down to as much as half, but Julia Childs would surely not advise that.

Would you like to share a specific recipe? Your neighbors would love to read about it! Email me at tiffilivelytx@gmail.com. If I don't, my Cordon Bleu trained stepmother will!

ACIA Pool

The Pool contract has been awarded to DS Recreational Svc. It was the low bid contract. ACIA is now working towards getting your community pools in appropriate condition for the upcoming summer season. This summer schedule has 2 days a week closure for each pool. Both pools will not be closed at the same time during the week. Your ACIA Board of Trustees would like to encourage everyone and especially the children to visit our facilities. Safety is our top priority.
